September 1, 2018

My dear one, your complete love for Me is in My Holy Eucharist. You told Me you could not live without receiving My Body and Blood. You come in close unity with Me when you receive Me in Holy Communion. My child, this is My great gift to you. It helps you do everything with Me and through Me. Use all the gifts I have given to you, for this is My Holy Will for you. The path I picked for you is the right one. The world, My child, is heading for complete disaster. Fear will take hold of many of My children. They will be afraid but you, My child, will not be afraid because you will have the courage and the ability to trust Me because I have shown you and taught you for these past years. You write these words through the power of My Holy Spirit. Very soon now, the world will come apart. It has already begun. Pray, little one, pray. Do not stop. Every prayer is heard. Place everything at the foot of My Cross and know I will take care of each and every matter according to My Holy Will and accept the outcome, always knowing it is My Holy Will, even when it is different from what you wished it to be. And, know and believe it is the best answer for each problem. My child, only I know the future and what will take place. You are not to know except for what I will reveal to you. I do not wish to frighten you for you are My little child. But, I do wish for you to be aware of what is to come. At the same time, I want you to have peace and complete confidence in your Father, that My Holy Will is the best answer and no matter what is going on, I am always taking care of you. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 2, 2018

My dear one, let My peace and love fill your heart. You try to do more than I ask of you. I want you to draw closer to Me and I want more of your day spent with Me. Have trust in Me and seek Me before anything else. Rest in Me. Sunday is a day for worship, not work. Now is the time, My daughter. Give up the world and spend your time in prayer and be with Me. My children will need your strength, your wisdom, and your love to come through the times ahead, but if you do not come to Me daily for My words, you will not have My strength, My wisdom and My love to give them. Do only My will. You are entering a new time. Life, as you knew it, must be left behind now. Very soon now, you will see all I must send to earth to bring My children out of sin. The ones that love Me will come back to Me. The ones that put money, power, lust, and sin first and will not accept My Love and Mercy will now reap what they sow. You must take a firm stand and let Me guide you day by day to do the work I have chosen for you to do. Satan tries to take you away from the mission I have given you. But, you cannot deny My words and special gifts I have blessed you with. Continue to trust Me and follow Me. All will come to pass and you will come into My New Heaven and Earth and the joy you will have to be with Me and all your loved ones. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 3, 2018

My little one, do you know how much you love to cuddle all the babies I have blessed you with? Your love for children has always been who you are. My love for My children is who I am. I want all My children to come to Me. I want a New Heaven and Earth for each one. I want to draw them all to their Savior and there will be no more evil or evildoers. You all shall be so blessed. I shall speak and you shall hear. Your eyes will be opened and no more will anything be hidden from you. All of you will dance with joy and be reunited with your loved ones. You will come before your God. You cannot comprehend the joy, the beauty, the grace, the magnificent splendor that awaits each one. You will know nothing but love, peace, and unending joy in the wonderful New Heaven and Earth your Father has waiting for each child that comes to Him. I love and bless you. Continue to love and serve Me for soon this splendor of Heaven will be a reality, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and I love and bless you.

September 4, 2018

My dear one, do you remember, right before 9-11-01, I told you much evil was coming to your country and it would never be the same? After that terror attack, many of My children came to church, fell on their knees and started to pray. Fear filled many hearts and many turned to Me in prayer. The world goes on and My children became busy with other things and many go on once again without any thought of Me. Soon, my child, much evil is coming once again and My children will wonder what happened and when things settle down once more, they will go right back to the world. I am calling all My children to listen to Me. It is time to believe and do what I have prepared you to do. Your preparation is distinguishing between what the world is saying and what I am saying. Read My Commandments so they become engrained in your heart. Sin is still sin. Corruption has even spread into My Holy Church. The world tells My children everything is ok as long as it makes you happy. Jesus will forgive you of everything. Wrong. I will forgive you if you come and seek forgiveness in Confession with an open heart but when I forgive, I also tell you to sin no more! I am a God of love and forgiveness and Mercy but I am also a God of Justice. Prepare, My children, your hearts, your souls, and your minds. Listen to Me. Do not believe in satan's lies. Follow Me. Read the signs I am giving you. Wake up and prepare. Time is running out. Avoid all sin. Come to Me and repent. My ways and truth are the path that leads to Heaven. Look around you and see all that is going on. Can you not see the words of Scripture being fulfilled? Can you not see all the messages My Holy Mother has given to Her children at all the places? She has come to warn you of these times and tell you to pray, pray, pray and come back to Her Son. My child, go back in your mind and remember all the holy places I brought you to visit and realize this was My plan for you to prepare you for these times. I gave so many blessings. You went all over the world and saw so many special places; where I was born, the house I was raised in, the Holy Land, all the places I lived and you, My child, walked where I did. You saw where I died on My Cross for all of God's children. And, you sat in My tomb. You always loved My Mother so I brought you to Medjugorje. You spent a day with Father Jozo. How he blessed you. You went to a refugee camp. I wanted you to see what war does to My children with your own eyes. I took you to Garabandal many times and you remember all the messages given by My Mother to Her children. Conchita told you herself she was given the date of the Great Miracle and it would be in her lifetime and you are about the same age. She said you would not be young anymore but you would not be very old or in a nursing home yet. I took you to Guadalupe, the miracle there of the tilma. Roses fell out miraculously and a life-size image of Mother Mary was left imprinted on the tilma. You went to Japan and saw the statue of Mother crying tears over abortion. I took you to Venezuela to meet Marie Esperanza and you saw My Holy Eucharist bleed. She gave you a picture of Me that she carried with her at all times. She prayed and healed your daughter. I took you to San Giovanni and who took your hand and walked you around and showed you everything? Why? Because you love Padre Pio. We would be up all night for you to remember all I have done for you in these past years but why(?), My child, to prepare you for now; to give you strength and courage to come through the days you are now living in, to do My Holy Will and to be able to help My children. I love and bless you for I am your God and Father, your Savior Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.

September 6, 2018

My Dear One, everything you do each day should be in preparation for the glorious life that awaits all My children. Eternal life with Me is what all My children should be living for. Life, My child, is so very short. Why do My children go on each day worried about only worldly things and trying so hard to make more money to buy things they don't need in the first place? My children need to come to Me and ask My Holy Spirit to fill your hearts with holy gifts. If only My children would ask Me to assist them with the trials of life, I will help them fulfill their duties in this state of life and I will help them do what is right. I will be their strength in their weakness and assist them to live a holy life. I want you to love everyone and hurt no one in any way and be able to sincerely forgive anyone who has hurt you. I want to fill each heart with My precious love to give to others. At Baptism, each child received My Holy Spirit. Each child of Mine is a temple and I wish to dwell within them. When My children put others before themselves and have charity, they live a holy life and I dwell within them. When My children are tempted by the devil, they must call on Me and know they have the gifts of My Holy Spirit from Confirmation and they need to use them. I want My children to realize the times they are living in and pray and make Me a reality in their life and go to Confession and make themselves ready, for I am coming soon to each one. Do not waste the little time you have left. As someone would clean their house because company was coming and they would not want them to see a mess; is it not more important to clean your soul and live your life as if I was right next to you each and every moment,

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

because I am and I am calling you now to make yourselves ready and My Holy Spirit will assist you to live a holy life now, so you will have eternal life with Me forever. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 7, 2018

My little one, do you see how quickly the years fled by? The days are passing so quickly and the hour grows late. How quickly all is coming to an end. It is time for preparation and yet most people in the world pay no attention. I have been sending many signs; the events that are taking place to fulfill Scripture. God, your Father, must bring His justice. Satan is always working to deceive and trick My children. You must always be on guard, but remember, he is powerless against true love and your God is true love. He will never have the power of God. You are in a spiritual battle and you must rely on Me in these most serious times and pray and trust in Me. Receive your strength in My Holy Eucharist and remember My remnant Church will survive, child, and be able to greet Me when I come again. Even though the danger will be great, believe you are protected by My Mother and Her Holy Angels. The beginning of tribulation in your country is here. All will suffer but keep your peace, knowing I am with you. I bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 8, 2018

My dear one, pray and tell My children it is now time to detach yourself from all earthly things and put your God first. All things must be for your God now. We must pray to be purged from all sin and allow our God and Father to work in us as He Wills. Tell My children to pray to know what God wants. We must realize that earth is a place of sufferings and tests and we must carry our cross without complaint. We should rise above earthly things and abandon ourselves to God's Will. We should desire what Jesus Wills and let Him take over our hearts and give up self-love for His love. Take each day and offer all you do and say. Ask Me to live in you and be Me to others, for I need each one to love each other as I do. Tell others of your faith and why you believe in your holy Catholic Faith and why you believe in My True Presence in My Holy Eucharist and why being able to receive Me means so much to you. For I am coming soon as your Jesus of Love and Mercy and My children will need the help and love of My faithful ones who already have My gifts of My Holy Catholic Faith. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 9, 2018

My little one, do you realize My little ones who believe in Me and their Holy Faith will be the ones in My Remnant Church and you will form a Eucharist community seeking to make Jesus the Lord of your lives? You are My children who believe in My Real Presence in My Holy Eucharist. My little children must have childlike faith. Your Holy Mass is not only a sacrifice, it is a Sacrament. It is through a Holy Mass you receive My Body and Blood. It is truly Me, your Jesus, that you receive in Holy Communion. Did I not promise you, he who eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood will have eternal life with Me? When a non-Catholic asks you if you are saved or if you know Jesus, there is no closer union with Me than to receive Me in My Holy Eucharist and Christ is living in you. For your whole life, you could attend Holy Mass and receive Me. My child, how will you feel if I am no longer in your Church and My gift of Myself is no longer there? The last heresy is the denial of My Real Presence. It will be My Remnant communities who will believe in My Real Presence and Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. I will always be with you and send you My true holy Priests so you will have a true Holy Mass. For it is My Holy Spirit leading My true believers to form My Remnant Church. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 10, 2018

My dear one, today I want to speak to you about My Divine Mercy. Do you realize, My child, I told Sister Faustina in 1931, that I promise the soul that will look upon My image of Me as the Merciful Christ as I appeared to her and venerate My picture of Jesus of Mercy, that soul will not perish? Do you understand what a gift this is to My little ones who pray My Chaplet of Divine Mercy and venerate My picture, will receive this gift. I told her, I am all Love and Mercy and a soul that trusts in Me is very happy because I Myself will take care of them. My Mercy is so much greater than any sin, no matter how scarlet. My Holy Mother told St. Faustina, "I gave the Savior to the world, speak of His great Mercy and prepare the world for His coming". This is the time to tell My children to call on Me and ask for My gift of Divine Mercy, pray the chaplet each day at 3 o'clock and receive this gift of My Divine Mercy. When I come as your Jesus of Love and Mercy, you will be given the gift of illumination. You will recognize your sins but you will also know how much I love each one of you. It is Me, Jesus Christ, who will save you. You will see yourself as God the Father sees you. Repent and receive My Mercy! You are to prepare for this awesome event now for I will be coming soon as your Jesus of Love and Mercy. Make yourself ready now, My dear ones. Time is running out. I give you these words from My Heart because I love each one of you so very much. I love and bless you for I am your Jesus of Love and Mercy.

September 11, 2018

My dear one, your days seem to be passing faster and faster because they are. Since you are living in these evil times, I am making time speed up. You must rest in Me, My child, forgetting about the worries of the world. Focus on Me and talk to Me and let Me give you My peace. Take each day as a journey with Me. As you focus on Me, you are being transformed into the one I created you to be. You will strengthen your faith and I will fill you with My peace and you will be able to share My love and peace with every child I send to you. If you trust in Me and spend time with Me, the outside world and all of the evil going on around you, will slip away from you and you can relax and enjoy each moment. Your main focus should be staying close to Me. My plans are to prosper you. Walk with Me. Walk away from the world and I will guide you through each day. Be happy, for eternal ecstasy awaits you. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 12, 2018

My dear one, when My children call you for prayer, I am grateful that you take your time and let My Holy Spirit give you words to help them. Many of My children are afraid of life and cannot face the unknown. Some are afraid to enjoy each day because they are afraid of the future and fear any new experience. In Scripture, it tells My children, don't worry about tomorrow, live today, tomorrow will have its own worries. Tell My children, I am with them today and will always be there each day. Some of My children fear death because of the unknown. They sense nothing but darkness. Little one, one minute you are on earth and the very next minute you are brought to be next to Me and the welcoming of all your loved ones that have come home before you. My daughter, all your life, you have never had fear. You have gone many places and always knew I was with you. The doctors told you when (name withheld) was born, that you almost died but I came with My Holy Mother and you saw us both. I told you that you could not come with Me yet because I had much work for you to do and you had complete peace. A few years later, you prayed for Me to send you another baby and you were not afraid even after all you went through. You said, "If God My Father, gives me another child, He will take care of me." You have been told of what's to come soon and when storms come, you pray and have complete peace, for you really trust in Me. Fear, My child, to live or die is very hard to live with. My children must trust in Me. Tell My children My message of hope that no matter how bad life may be on earth, I lovingly erase all memory of pain and loss. When you enter My New Heaven and Earth, you will have nothing but perfect love, perfect peace, and perfect happiness forever. Is that not worth looking forward to? So, live each day without fear. Focus on Me and My love for each one and let all worry fall away from you. Look forward to all to come. I love you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 13, 2018

My dear child, I hear your prayers for the people who about to have hurricanes. You are seeing homes destroyed by storms, earthquakes, fires, tornadoes, water, and natural disasters. They are happening with more frequency. I told you these events would take place and you are seeing this fulfilled. Soon, many will be stripped of their comforts and realize how fragile their lives are. Look at the truth, your weather is a chastisement. Already, you have seen increased prices for your food. You have been blessed and grown accustomed to many comforts. Pray for My children who have had their homes taken away. As the tribulation becomes more intense, you are to pray and trust in Me for you will understand how hard it will be to live without the comforts you are used to. You are My faithful remnant and you will be tested. The false Pope will mislead many to follow the Anti-Christ and the schismatic church will take over your church. And, My children will have to choose between Me or the Anti-Christ. You will have to have underground Mass. I will send My Angels and you will have My Real Presence. I will be with you. Have faith in My protection, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 14, 2018

My dear one, please tell My children once more to go and take advantage of My Sacrament of Reconciliation for each one must take responsibility for their own sins. You must stop sin in your lives now. The guilt of your sin is removed by absolution in Confession. I am coming soon as your Jesus of Love and Mercy. Be alert, be ready, for I love each one and I want the cleansing of your souls. Satan wants to take you away from Me and My plan is for your salvation. When I come to each one, you will realize how precious you are to Me and any sin that is left on your soul at the time, will make you unhappy because when you realize how much I love you, it will be out of love that you will never want to sin again or to offend Me in any way. By going to Confession often, your soul will be beautiful and full of grace and ready for Me to come to you. Time, My children, is running out. Go now, be ready, for I am your Jesus of Love and Mercy and I bless you, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 15, 2018

Little one, I want all My children to have peace and joy. Please tell them to live life today to the fullest even though many have troubles and problems. My children must remember and know that I am in control and they have nothing to fear. My children need to come to Me and feel My Presence and come to Adoration and be with Me and I will take away all worries and fears. I will wipe away every tear and My Promise is, soon there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, only My love, joy and peace and all My children who give Me their 'Yes' will come to Me and enter My New Heaven and Earth I have waiting for them. You cannot imagine how wonderful this will be. I bless you in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 16, 2018

My dear one, thank you for your 'Yes' to have My son, (name withheld) visit you. I am sending him to confirm many things I have told you. I understand it is not easy on you to pray with so many of My children and open your place to so many. As soon as (name withheld) leaves (name withheld) is also coming. He will bring many blessings to all My children. Do not worry. Everything will work out for this is My Holy Will for both of them to come. Time, My child, is very, very short now. I will send the help you will need to be ready for My sons to come. I will send special words to you through (name withheld). I want you to keep this with you, for you will need to re-read the words to come through the times ahead of you and confirmation of My words to you will help you help all My children whom I am sending you. (Name withheld) will give you a special healing which you are also in need of, for My child, your mission is a calling from Me and your love for My children is My love. Lately I have sent many of My children to you. You do not realize how much each one received, for it is My Holy Spirit that works through you and you are doing My Holy and Divine Will for you. I bless you and give you the strength and courage to continue your mission. I am always with you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 17, 2018

My dear one, continue your detachment from earthly things; practice praying, penance, and dying to self. Do you realize, little one, as soon as a soul becomes dead to the world and comes to Me in prayer and does penance and gives themselves over to My Holy Will, it becomes so beautiful. Your heart and mind worry more about a spiritual life and your soul becomes most important to you. You become closer and closer to Me and you start to imagine what Heaven is really like. You realize life is so very short and all that matters is eternal life with your God and father. You feel My Presence with you at all times. You know My Holy Angels are all around you and you know the Holy Saints I send to you. Continue on this path, My child, for I am holding your hand and you are walking and talking with Me. I love and bless you for you are Mine and I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 18, 2018

My little one, tell My children to prepare for My coming. So few realize how close I am. Why do My children not realize what is happening in the world? Never before have My children accepted sin so much into their lives. Your governments force My children to accept sin as their law. This is why the chastisement must come upon them. Satan wants to destroy the earth and My children. His power comes from your sins. Abortion is the cause of this. My little innocent ones are destroyed and so few care. Look around you; war is everywhere. Even My Holy Church is against their God because now, so many liberal Cardinals and Bishops surround your Pope. They want to accept homosexuality, living together outside marriage, and divorce into My Church. My laws have not changed. Sin is still sin. Do not allow the world to influence you and take you away from Me. Tell all My children to look at their lives and find where they are weak and fight to remove what leads them into sin. There are so many things; greed, lust, internet, anger, unforgiveness. Look into yourselves, into your hearts. It is so easy to hurt others by gossip. Think, My children, before you speak. Come to Me. Follow Me. The only way is to love. Remember, I am your God and I will forgive you if you seek forgiveness with your heart, for I love My children and I am calling each one back to Me. Love one another as I do. Prepare, My children. Prepare yourself, your soul, for My coming for I want all My children I created to be with Me forever in Paradise. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 19, 2018

My dear ones, gathered together to pray - I come to you today as your Christ Child. I love each one of you so very much. I know each one of you and remember you as a small child. Children are all so beautiful and innocent. They believe in what they see and grow into adults in a short period of time. Remember when each one of you were little? Do you remember your First Confession, how you wondered what you would tell your priest? You were even a little afraid. You wanted Father to know you were a good little boy or girl. You were excited to receive Me for the first time. How sweet and little you were, so pure. Life was all joy and full of happiness. My dear ones, love Me and come to Me as you did when you were a child, for to Me, you still are My little children. Life is a journey, to get to love Me, know Me, and serve Me. When you come to Me, small and humble, you let Me fill you with My love. You still believe and understand your Holy Catholic Church. Little children are open to love and kindness. That is what all children need, to know they are loved and accepted. Your faith is rooted deep within your heart. You love Me because you know I died on My Holy Cross for you so you could be forgiven for our sins and spend eternal life with Me. Little ones, believe as small children once again. Do not fear anything. What does a small child have to fear if they have a father and mother who loves them. You have a Father who loves you and wants you to come to Him and He has His Kingdom waiting for each one to be with Him forever, to have complete love, joy, and peace. So, come to My Cross and lay all burdens down before Me and know you are in My Hands and I will always do what is best for each one, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 20, 2018

My dear one, you can see the disasters of nature and decay of the earth. The spiritual war has begun. The one world government is in total control of many countries now. Floods and fires, earthquakes and one storm after another continues to happen. Do My children not understand the fulfillment of Fatima is about to take place? My children will not listen or repent. Satan has taken over so many of My children's minds and hearts. My children are suffering all over the world. I have come so many times all over the world to tell My children of the terrible and horrible chastisement to come. I have told My dear children to pray, pray, pray. A warning will take place soon and God, your Father, will give everyone a chance to choose him or the evil one. Pray now, My children, for the ones that refuse to listen. There is little time left. Open your hearts, let God's love fill you, open your minds, and listen to His words of Scripture that you are living now. Open your souls and run to Confession. Receive forgiveness and wash yourselves clean. Be ready to face the One who created you and loves you.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

Tell My children, if you give sincere repentance, you will receive love and mercy no matter what evil you have committed; a beautiful gift from your Father that loves you. I am your Mother and I cry many tears over My children. I offer My heart as a refuge for My children to turn away from sin. Consecrate yourselves once again to My Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of My Son. As a loving Mother, I am telling you once again to pray, pray, pray. Come back to your God. Time is very, very short. Listen to your Mother who loves Her children. Your Father in Heaven can no longer allow your world to continue on in so much evil. He is ready to drop His Hand on a sinful world. I love and bless you for I am the Mother of all of God's children and I do not want to lose My dear children to the evil one who is trying to destroy My children. Come into My Heart and My Son's Heart. We are waiting for you. I place My kiss upon you now as a loving Mother and bless each one, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 21, 2018

My dear one, I come to you tonight to help you understand all that is going on around you. Do you realize when you gave Me your 'Yes', you became a servant of God? I realize sometimes it is very difficult to understand. I have blessed you in many ways and yet you have had many trials. Your cross over your dear daughter becomes too heavy at times and yet you continue on in your heart and mind. You realize the times you are living in. You have set up a refuge because you really believe in what is to come. You have a deep love for all and want to protect your children and grandchildren. You care about all the ones in your prayer group and share a special love and fellowship with one another. My daughter, I do not want you to worry for I will place in your heart what I want you to do both spiritually and physically. I am the One who has set up your refuge and My Holy Spirit will guide you as My plan unfolds. Be not afraid for I am always with you. Only listen to My words I give to you and pray you will be protected by My grace. My Holy Mother and St. Joseph and My Holy Spirit will be by your side and be your protectors from the evil one. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 22, 2018

My little child, you are seeing Holy Scripture being fulfilled. You must pray each day. More and more, you will hear and live through many things that will bring much fear and hopelessness to many of My children. My Holy Spirit will empower you with His gifts. You will be able to see the spiritual realm around you. You know you have My Holy Angels around you and My Holy Saints are ready to help. All you have to do is call them by name. You must believe in the power of your God to protect His children and provide for each one. You are never to fear. You are to trust in Me, for I will renew your strength and saturate you in My peace so you will be able to give My peace to all who come to you. Do not let unexpected disasters distract you from My Presence. Instead, talk everything over with Me. Make Me your Refuge and trust in Me for everything at all times. I love and bless you, for I am your God and Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

September 23, 2018

My dear one, today you were blessed with a beautiful Holy Mass. You had many of your loved ones with you. When you come to church, you know in your heart, when all that is going on, is in accordance with your Holy Catholic faith, because you know your Holy Faith. My child, you also know of the evil going on in My Holy Church and it breaks your heart because you really love your Church. You love to come to Holy Mass and receive Me in Holy Communion. You know what a great gift My Body and Blood is for My children. We become part of one another and you love My Holy Eucharist. Many years ago, you asked Me why I sent you a chapel and I told you to open a book written by St. Alphonsus Liguori on My Holy Eucharist. I asked you to read what was highlighted. It explained to you that My offering of Myself in My Holy Eucharist would continue forever except for a period of time, it would cease on earth for three and a half years and two weeks. I told you this would be the time of the Antichrist. The sacrifice of the Mass will be suspended. My little one, you will know in your heart when this time comes but My promise to you is that the gates of hell will not prevail against My Holy Church. You will have the remnant Church and my true and holy Priest sons will continue to have a true and holy Mass so My remnant will always have My Holy Eucharist. Trust always in Me, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and I love and bless you.

My dear one, tonight I sent a child of Mine to you. She called and told you she was coming to fix your furniture. When she saw your home, you started talking about Me. I told you to take her to the chapel. She broke down and told you she just found out (illness omitted). You joined together in prayer and gave Me Glory and shared your love for Me. You helped her much more than you know. Continue to love and care for My children as I do. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My dear one, I am blessing you to be given grace to be confident in the mission I have given you. I guide and accompany you in all you do each day. I want you to realize I surround you with many angels and this is what I wish to do for all My dear ones and all they must do is ask, as you do. I want to fill all My children with love and grace and then you all will be able to give this gift to others. All I ask is for My dear ones is to become completely trusting in Me so I may enter into their being and bring them to become My Holy Saints. The days you are now living in are not easy. You will receive My strength and courage to go on by receiving Me in My Holy Eucharist. My children who believe in My true presence will be the ones to keep their Holy Faith alive. Satan wants to destroy My Holy Church but, it is he who will be brought down. Prepare yourselves, My children, with humility and sincere love for God and for one another. Be confident in the work you engage in and you will respond to the Holy Spirit. You have come into unity with My Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of your Mother, Mary, and one another, and know you will be the ones to help My Holy Mother crush Satan and be the weight of Her heel. All Her children who answered Her call and keep their faith will see the triumph of Her Immaculate Heart and the glorious coming of Jesus. Pray and trust and continue on to know, love, and serve your God. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My dear child, each and every day call on Saint Michael, the Archangel to help you. My children are in a great battle between good and evil. Ask him for his protection against the devil because My dear children need his protection and help for Satan is trying to destroy My children and take them away from their faith in Me. But, rest assured, My child, by the power of your God and Father, I will cast Satan and all evil spirits into hell. Trust in Me and know the battle has been won by My death on My Cross. I want all God's children to cleanse themselves with a good Confession and know all sins can be forgiven when you are truly sorry and seek forgiveness and give up your former ways of sin. I am coming as your Jesus of Love and Mercy to bring God your Father's children back to Him. Pray, for I love and bless you in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Little one, you have been working all day preparing for the ones I am sending you. My son, John, will speak and give My children the words I give to Him to share with all who I join together there. I am also sending you My Holy Priest -Sons to give My children a Holy Mass. You will all receive many blessings through My Holy Priest-Sons. You will receive Me in My Holy Eucharist and My Holy Spirit will enter each one and I will bless each one. And, after My son John leaves, I am sending (priest's name omitted) to bless each one once again and Father will also bless each one with a healing from Me. Know, some will be physical, some will be for a broken heart and spirit. Some will be spiritual but know each one will receive what I know is best for each one. For, I always do what is best for each child of Mine. I love and bless you for your 'yes' to do My Will and open your heart to help others, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Little one, I do not want My children to fear the coming chastisement. All My children will receive and carry the sign of My Cross on their foreheads. This sign, only My chosen ones will be able to see. They will be instructed by My Holy Angels where to go and what to do. My faithful ones will be without any fear. You will be protected and taken care of by Heaven. You must realize ordinary life doesn't matter anymore. Turn your lives over to your Savior Jesus and your Mother Mary. Spend as much time as you can in prayer. The time has come, My child, for a cleansing of all My children in the world. To come through these times, My children must abandon themselves to Me and seek only the Kingdom of God. When My Warning comes, everyone will see how their soul really is and how they stand before God, their Father. Tell all My children, you are living in the final times. Why not prepare and make yourselves ready now before it is too late? Pray and love, forgive others from your heart. Help one another. Your life must be your prayer and your prayer should be your way of life. Your rosary is your way to arm yourselves against satan's influence. Your Church will be shaken and you will hear about much evil within it, but you must pray and stand firm in your faith. It is time your God and Father must purify the world but be not afraid, for I am with you and I am your God and Father, your Jesus of Love and Mercy. I want to fill each child with My Holy Spirit for I love each child with a love they will feel and understand at the time of My coming to each one as your Jesus of Love and Mercy.

Pray for My Holy Priest-Sons. They need My faithful to pray for them for the time of persecution of My Church and My Priests has come, but remember, My Holy Church will come back in splendor and My Holy Priests will have the respect they deserve for all My children will want to receive Me once again in My Holy Eucharist. And, only My Holy Priest-Sons can bring this miracle to My children. After My gift of Divine Mercy, My Priest-Sons will be looked upon with honor. My children will be coming for Confession and be hungry for the true faith and want their souls always ready to receive Me for their hearts and minds will know the truth and all of God's children will be Catholic. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Little one, Be faithful to Me. Do not judge, criticize or condemn anyone, as I have not condemned you. Love and prayer are the weapons. See Me in all those that you meet. Trust in Me for time grows shorter. Look within yourselves and die to yourself. Remove sin from your life and you will know My peace. I am coming soon to gather My children who love Me. Be ready, for I am close. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My dear little one, what complete joy you had today when you went to visit My Holy Priest Son. He is growing very old but when you walked into the room with your husband, he knew you and what joy you all shared together. He talked about all the places you went together. He is amazing at ninety-seven. At three o'clock, you asked him if you could pray together. You started to pray Divine Mercy and he was so happy and you all prayed together. He gave you and your husband a special blessing and hugs. You could see such love and joy in his eyes. Love and enjoy everyone I send into your life. Father asked you if the group was still together after all these years. And, you told him, yes. He told you how much he would love to come say Mass in the chapel. My child, I want you to know Father will come home to Me soon and he will always be with each one, praying for each one of you from Heaven and I know you will never forget the love in his eyes, for he has always been a good and faithful servant and loves all of My children that I placed in his life. Remember, it is not the end of his life; it is just the beginning. The joy you shared, he will always have. So, when I call him home to Me, do not be sad, be so happy for him, for he will always watch over the ones I placed in his life and his reward is waiting for him. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
