February 1, 2019

My dear one, today is the first day of a new month. How many of My children will take time to go to Confession. How many will come to Church and receive Me in My Holy Eucharist. Time is passing so very fast. My children must realize how little time they have left to repent of their sinful ways. Read the signs of your times and know I am close at hand. Are you ready for Me? Follow Me and make yourselves ready, for My Warning is coming soon and each one will be given a chance to listen. The ones that have chosen to follow Me and My Ways, I will save. The ones who will not change their evil ways, I will have to chastise, for the days are numbered. I will put an end to all evil. Trust in Me. Come to Me, for I love you and want all My children to come into My Kingdom. Now is the time to seek Me, come to Confession with a true heart, and all will be forgiven. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 2, 2019

My little one, some of My children called on you today to pray with them. Many of My remnant children know how fast time is passing. They realize all that is going on around all of you. You can see signs in the weather and in the world. So many countries want to make war on other countries. Evil seems to be growing everywhere. Every day so very many are ill; so many are suffering. My child, tell My children not to become discouraged, for I am with them. Satan is trying his best, for many of My children have listened to his lies. He has made many stop believing in Me. The world is very hard on many of My children. Many are not loved or feel wanted. When mothers can kill their own children and governments say it is legal and when it is alright for men to be with men and women to be with women, your world has hit the bottom. War has been going on for too long. Many of My children are being killed just for believing in Me. How can My children survive in a world so evil? Satan's days are almost over. Rejoice, for your Savior is coming once again and this time, I am coming to destroy all evil and bring My children to a New Heaven and Earth. Believe and trust in Me. Your freedom is at hand. I will give each one a choice. Follow Me. Love is the answer. I love you. Come to Me, for you are Mine and My Kingdom awaits the ones that are Mine. My Love and Mercy will give each one a chance, for I am your Lord, King of Kings, your God and Father, your Savior, and I am calling each one back to Me. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

February 3, 2019

My dear one, tell My faithful ones not to worry if they are criticized for what they believe in. I am with you and hear all your prayers. Fear comes from lack of faith in Me. Each day, My children have different things that are happening around them. Evil is everywhere but if you fear, then you do not trust Me. I am in control of your life. I have a plan for each child. It is not the cross you carry, it is how you carry the cross I gave to you. I promised never to give you more than you could handle. When you have faith in Me, you let Me help you carry your cross and know all will pass. You are living for Eternal Life and you will exist forever. Give everything to Me and know I always know what is best for each one. After all, who gave you your life in the first place? When you need peace, come to Me, be with Me, call on My Holy Spirit. I will give you My peace, for I love each one and want for you to call on Me. Live each day with Me, for I am the One who called you into existence to get to know Me. Love Me as I love you and serve Me by loving others. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 4, 2019

My dear one, tell My children, soon I will be coming as your Jesus of Love and Mercy. I will come to each one. It will be a review of each one's life. I will show each one the truth, for it cannot be hidden. You each will see the good things you have done and the mistakes you have made. At the same time, each child will know how much they are loved and each one will be able to decide to answer My call or deny Me. The best preparation for this, My children, is love. Love for your God and love for one another. While there is still time, seek out a holy Priest and go to Confession. I died on My Cross so your sins could be forgiven and I would do this all over again for each one of you so we will have Eternal Life together. Be ready, for time is short. I call each one to Myself. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

February 5, 2019

My little one, over a hundred years ago, your Holy Mother came to Fatima to tell Her children to pray and turn back to your God and Father and believe in your holy Catholic Faith. She said, by praying your Rosary, Russia could be converted and we could have peace. Many of My children now think this message does not matter, that it was too long ago and not in their lifetime. She came to tell Her children what would come to be if people would not change. She warned Her children about global disaster. To prove to Her children this was real, God let 70,000 people witness a miracle. She gave three secrets to the children, Lucy, Francisco, and Jacinta. She showed the children hell, where poor sinners would go. She asked Her children to have devotion to Her Immaculate Heart and stop offending God. She said it was urgent to pray your Rosary and for First Saturday devotion. When will My children listen? You are now living the third secret. You can see what is going on in your Holy Church. You can see the world and how many countries have nuclear weapons. My little ones, who will still listen, pray and have devotion to My Mother's Immaculate Heart and My Sacred Heart, for that is where My children are loved and protected. Above all, pray for the salvation of souls and world peace. Remember, My Remnant, it is never too late to have recourse to Jesus and Mary. Continue to pray and receive graces from Heaven. Keep your Faith alive, for I am always with you and I bless you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Please Note: The message below, and all of the Christ Child's Messages, are for everyone all over the World.

February 6, 2019

My dear ones, today, I come to you as your Christ Child. Many years ago, I asked Father Jerome to bring Me here in this Statue of Myself as your Christ Child. You understand the world you are now living in is full of evil. My children have been living in a world where some children are not loved and cherished as they should be. Your laws have permitted abortion and as you can see all around you, many believe it is fine to destroy My Creation. My children are all special and each one is precious. I have each one that was killed, with Me, and each one will meet their mother when I return. The prayers you just said are very special to Me. You just asked Me to bring My Treasures of Mercy to a world so far from My Ways. This will happen soon. I am coming as your Jesus of Love and Mercy. The reason I wanted to come here as your Child Jesus is because children have always been loved and protected here. During a major war, I asked My Priest-Son to have My Hands fixed and have the children pray to Me. As the children did, they were protected from evil and were sent everything that they needed to come through the evil times in which they lived. You all realize the times you are now living in. You all have children and grandchildren and loved ones. They must come through the times to come. I am here when you gather each time to pray to Me. I will protect you and make sure you will have all you will need, for each one of you are My children and I am here as the Christ Child and also your God and Father and Savior. I called you to be together. You are all blessed with My Holy Spirit and you will come through the tribulation with love for Me and love for one another and all My children will be loved and protected with My holy Angels and Saints. Your holy Mother is the one who called each of you and you answered Her call. Continue on, My children, with your love, faith, and know each and every prayer is heard. You are all blessed and given the gifts of My Holy Spirit to come through these times together. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. [When we were singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet] (name withheld) saw, in a vision, Jesus, hanging on the Cross and tears coming down His cheeks. "Tell My children, when I hung on My Cross, I could see you and hear you as you prayed for My Divine Mercy today. It brought Me joy and relief and I cried tears over your love for Me."

February 7, 2019

My Dear One, yesterday you had a beautiful day. Your prayer group met to pray together and I blessed all of you. You love being together and praying together and your prayers were all heard. You could feel the love and peace you all shared. It is so good to join together in prayer. The days seem to be going faster and faster. Your world is so busy. You have such a fast pace of life now. Imagine life without cell phones, T.V., computers or electricity. Each day, you hear the news but do you really know what is going on around you? Each day, My children have so much to do. You have to work and most men and women work because everything is so expensive now. It is hard to have a family and afford all that you need unless two people are working. Your children have school and so many outside activities after school. Everyone is on the go all the time. On weekends, there are so many sports and shopping and movies and this and that. It seems each day becomes busier and busier; no time just to stop and pray or time for each other. Everyone seems to be going here or there. I understand how hard life seems to be now. Never before have children needed so many things as they do now. Families used to gather together to pray but now, most children are so busy with I-phones and computers and playing games. They are all just too busy. Years ago, My children felt a large family was a gift from God and they taught their children to pray and brought them to church. Now, everything else seems to be more important. Children need things they never had before. Family seems to be falling apart. Satan has made many believe that everything else is more important than faith or time to go with their children to church. Your world is showing your children material things are all that matters. It seems people work so hard to have things but once they have it, they just want something else. It is so hard to go on for some, and others seem to have so much more than they need. Evil is growing everywhere and everyone is trying to keep up with everyone else. I must come soon with My Love and Mercy and show My children what is really important. I must show a world that is too busy for Me and My laws what is really important. When I created the world, it was beautiful and full of God's Creation. When I created My children, I did so that they would know Me, love Me, and serve Me and obey My Ways. I must start all over again with a New Heaven and Earth, full of love, joy, and peace. Pray that children come back to your God and Father, for I still love you and bless you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

February 8, 2019

My dear ones, please pray for My children who do not know Me or believe in Me. Your Faith is a great blessing, for it gives you hope that you know Me and believe in Me. The times you live in are not easy. There are so many of My children that do not know Me. They live for today only. They do not believe in life after death. They are in need of My Mercy. You that keep your Faith and know Me, live for Eternal Life. You come to Me and believe in your faith. You receive Me in Holy Communion and know it is My gift to you, My Body and Blood. You know I rose from the dead and I will come again. This gives you peace and each day, you are able to go on because your faith is that God exists and you believe that I am real. You can pray and I hear you. You know you have a Father who loves you. You can come to Confession and by My death on My Holy Cross, your sins can be forgiven. Pray for the ones who do not believe. Help My lost ones by your example. I love and bless you, for I am your God and Father, and you have the gift of My Holy Spirit.

February 9, 2019

Little one, time is passing very fast and before you know it, it will be Lent once more. I am asking My children to take this time to come be with Me and to understand how much I love you. Come sit with Me to do the Stations of the Cross with Me. Look deep within yourselves and look at your souls. Do prayers of reparation and understand why I gave you Myself in My Holy Eucharist. I am calling all of you to come to Me. Take time in these forty days to give yourselves to Me. I gave Myself to you to die for each one so all your sins could be forgiven so you could have Eternal Life. Meditate on My Passion. Pray your Sorrowful Mysteries on your Holy Rosary. On Good Friday, start your novena to Divine Mercy. When Easter Sunday comes, rise with Me and continue your Divine Mercy novena. Make yourselves ready for My Love and Mercy. I love and bless each one, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 11, 2019

Little one, many years ago I sent a servant of Mine to tell you that a chastisement would descend upon your country. When you see how your country is now split between good and evil and everything that is going on, you realize how soon everything I have prepared you for will happen. Your country is so divided, it shall fall. You have already seen how satan has divided families. You were so upset over

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

New York and Virginia, saying a baby could be killed after birth, it made you cry to think how evil that is. You turned on a cooking show today and a man said he wanted to introduce his wife and it was another man. You told Me, "Sin is everywhere, Jesus". My child, you are right but do not give up your faith because I tell you, satan's free reign will end. Tell My children to strive for holiness; from this, they will have the strength for the days to come. You have seen many signs of the times you are now living in. I told you of the fires, floods, and earthquakes. You see the weather. Just last week, it was so cold and then it was warm. Much more is to come, My child, for My hand will fall. But, do not fear for all is possible with your God and even though the time of great disasters will be upon you, My Divine Mercy shall come and all My children shall have a choice between good and evil. The ones that come to Me will have Eternal Life. Remember Eternal Life is the only lasting life. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 13, 2019

I am very pleased for all that has been done here. Continue to prepare and do what I place within your heart. All has been done out of love for Me. My faithful remnant is closer than a family. You are a family united in love to do My Holy Will and you shall not be divided. Each one has a strong faith and trusts in Me. I united you together to come through the chastisement without fear and to help My children I send to you. My child, tonight you spoke with a very holy Priest-Son of Mine. He told you what was in his heart and on his mind to do. Please tell My dear son, I placed this in his heart and mind. It is My Holy and Divine Will. He is bringing so many of My children back to Me. My Holy Spirit works through him. This will bless and heal all the ones I send to him. Pray for him and all My holy Priests each day. It is a very trying time for the ones I have called to be Priests, to keep My Laws and Truths alive, when all the evil one does is try to destroy My faithful ones. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

February 14, 2019

My dear one, many times I have told you I am with you. I want you and all My children to realize when I tell you, I am with you, it means I am not just looking down from Heaven over you. No, it means I see you every moment of each and every day. I walk with you and I experience what you experience. When you experience sorrow, I feel and know your sorrow. When you are ill, I feel what you do. When you really rely on My Presence with you at all times, you will ask Me what My Will is for you and My Spirit will speak to you and you will hear the words within your heart and soul. I know your sins before you commit them. If you ask for forgiveness and go to Confession, all is forgiven. I will never leave you. It is you who leaves Me. If you find your life too hard, it is because you do not let Me in and believe I am with you. You cannot accomplish anything without Me. You need Me and I am here for you. Just say, "Jesus, help me", and rely on Me. You will not regret living your life with Me. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 15, 2019

My dear one, many of My children spend their time in fear and worry about their future. Instead, spend your time and imagine Eternity with Me. Life on earth is very short and a testing time. Why worry about your future? I will be there. Come to Me and spend time meditating on My Passion. You will allow Me to reveal Myself to you and we will become closer and you will realize how much I love you. Do not be afraid and fear nothing, just come to Me often. Discuss everything with Me, and you and I will become as one. Come to Me every day in prayer and let Me lead you on your journey of life. Learn to trust Me with everything, for I understand and know everything about you. I am your Savior and I love you. I died for each one of you. Come to Me and let Me lead you to Everlasting Life. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 16, 2019

My dear one, tell My children I know the cross that each one carries and it is hard to suffer, but when you pick up your cross and suffer what is asked and remain in trust, that is persevering. Continue to pray, for you have a gift and that is your faith and one day, you will put down your cross and I will take all suffering away forever. My true servants carry very heavy burdens but My Will is being accomplished and soon, I will come as your Jesus of Love and Mercy and you will understand your sufferings and the path you have walked. You will feel and know My Love for you and the graces you have received for keeping your faith and trust in Me, even with the cross you have carried. I love all My children and want each one to come to Me. Heaven is real. Let Me help you to prepare. Serve Me with your love and obedience. You are living in dark and sinful times but all of Heaven wants to help you. Call on My Saints and your loved ones that are here with Me. They can help you so much more now than when they were on earth. You are Mine and I am with you to help you carry your cross. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 17, 2019

My Dear One, I have been telling My children to live in My Presence and know I am with them. After everyone spends time with Me, this becomes a reality to them. I wish for each one to show others that you really believe I am with you at all times. You will act as you know I am present, you will pray more, and when you speak, you will speak as you know I am listening. You will see Me in others, you will only speak good things about others and not worry about their faults, and only see your own. You will follow Me and love others and have compassion and mercy for them, as I have. For every act of kindness for others, you will receive kindness from Me. You will grow in holiness and you will see goodness in others. And, then others will see My peaceful children living in My Presence and being Me to others. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 18, 2019

My Little One, tell My children to live what they believe. My faithful children have believed in the coming chastisement for many years now. You can see all the signs I have been sending you. Ordinary life doesn't matter anymore. It is time now to pray, repent, forgive everyone, and love everyone. Pray each and every day and have compassion, be kind and have joy. I do not want fear. Pray for fortitude, stay strong, and have peace no matter what is going on around you. I will place in your hearts what I want you to do to prepare. So many of My children put a future plan in place. They worry about years to come instead of what is going on right now. It is time now for conversion. Return to your Jesus. Prepare for what is to come but remember, I will send My Holy Angels to protect you. I must cleanse your world of all evil. My children are split apart. So many believe in the evil they live in, is right. I must send a purification unlike anything the world has ever known. There will be great suffering and difficult days. Your faith and praying your Holy Rosary will bring you through each day. I love and bless each one, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 21, 2019

My little one, many years ago, St. John Bosco was given a vision of the problems My Holy Church would have in the last days. You are now hearing of all the evil within our Church. But, did I not say, the gates of hell will not prevail against My Church? It is My Holy Eucharist and Our Holy Mother Mary that will guide Our Church and My little ones through these severe trials. My Divine Mercy will pour out My forgiveness on sinners in these difficult times, for I am all love and mercy and a soul that trusts in Me, I will care for Myself. No sin, no matter how corrupted, cannot be forgiven for it was for sinners, I came to earth and shed My Blood. I will call each one and they will know how much I love them and they will see themselves as I see them. And, they will have a choice between good and evil. The ones that follow Me will come out of love. And, there will be a miracle at Garabandal if My children truly repent. If the world does not repent, after this, a great chastisement will take place. Now is the time to prepare for this. Come to Me in Adoration, Holy Mass, and Confession. Be ready, for I am coming. I love and bless you for I am your Jesus of Love and Mercy.

February 22, 2019

Little ones, this Lent, I want you to pray for the salvation of all My children. My devoted ones, I want each of you to have patience and accept your difficulties and try to understand My Will in all events in your lives. I call you to be humble and value yourself for who I created you to be and see the graces and blessings I have given you in your life. In the days ahead, will you be willing to assist anyone I send to you in need? Practice compassion for others, never judging or condemning anyone. You will see much going on around you now; one disaster after another. Call on My Holy Saints to help you and never be afraid, for I have surrounded you with My Holy Angels. You are now living in a time as never before. Read your Holy Bible and open your eyes to what is going on around you. You know the evil that you live in now. Rise above it and know satan's time is almost over. Pray and trust and know I am always with you. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

February 23, 2019

My child, do you remember as a small child, you never worried about anything. If your mother or father told you something, you believed it. You felt loved and protected. Tell all My children to follow Me and be as a small child. Give all to Me and know I am in charge of everything. You are to trust Me and know I am your Savior. I will always do what is best for each one. Everything on earth belongs to Me and each one of you belong to Me. Bring Me all your troubles and leave them with Me. I will not forsake you or give you more than you can carry. I hear your prayers. Come to Me and let Me fill you with My peace. I was crucified for you so all your sins will be forgiven. All I want is for you to come to Me and let Me guide you and lead you on the right path. My love for you is far greater than you can imagine. Be Me to others and love them as I do. Look forward to My Second Coming and know you were created to be with Me in My Kingdom forever. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 24, 2019

My little one, tell My children to pray for your President. I am the one who brought President Trump to be your leader but your country is split in two between the ones who are liberal and the ones who are conservative. He is trying to lead your country in the right direction but he is always being condemned for everything he does. Your President needs prayer for he is about to attend a summit with Kim Jong Un from North Korea and he is dealing with evil and will not be told the truth. You will see many countries going against America and Israel. Many countries now have nuclear weapons and many more are being made each day. Russia and China have major plans to be more powerful than America. Many countries hate Israel and want to destroy it. Your President stands up for Israel and now your country is also hated by all the ones who hate Israel. Your President's life is in great danger. Pray for him. Many in America also hate him because he tells the truth and they do not want to hear the truth or live by the truth. Many live in sin and believe what they do is right, for many make up their own laws and do not live by My laws. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 25, 2019

My dear ones, you are now living in a time of great trials that are truly devastating, for it is the times predicted in the Book of Revelations. At times, some of My children feel as if I have forsaken them. It is so hard when you pray for something and your answer is not what you wanted. Your cross is what saves you for your cross is the plan of God your Father, for your salvation. When someone comes home to Me, it is so hard on the loved ones left behind. Many times they cry out, 'Why God, why didn't you listen to my prayers?' When I was on My Cross, I cried out, "My God, My God, why have you forsaken Me"? But, My Cross was salvation for all of God's children. My Mother stood by My Cross for she knew this was God's Will. She suffered and did not say a word because she knew My Cross was a sign of unconditional love for all. By her cross, she became Mother to all of God's children and loves each one. The loss of someone so precious to you is a deep hurt. Life, My children is all about love. The cross you carry is your path to Heaven. Remember, the world is not your home. I prepared a place for each one. Do not grieve over the ones I called home for they are a special gift that I only loaned to you and they are so happy with Me. But one day very soon, now, all My children will be with Me and I will wipe away every tear for, that day is what you have been waiting for. So, carry your cross a little longer and know I am with you and soon, you will put it down forever and your loved ones who are with Me now are waiting for you and praying for you. Talk to them. They hear you and because of the love you share, they are always with you. Do not despair for life is eternal and you will always be together again forevermore. Your life on earth is so short and goes by so fast. But, My children, you are living for Eternal Life, for I love each one and call each one to come to Me, repent of your sins and look forward to all I have waiting for each one; not the devastating times you are living in, but a New Heaven and Earth full of love, peace, and joy united with all the special ones I placed in your life for you will have one another forever. I love and bless you, your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

February 26, 2019

Little one, each day, My children must learn to trust Me in all things. There is so much sin now in the time of evil you are living in but I tell you this time of sin will end. You must be ready, for I am in control of everything and I am about to drop My Hand on a sinful world that makes up an excuse for every sin that is committed. Open your eyes, for I am your Father, your Savior and I am coming again to show your sinful world who has the power, who holds the truth, for I am the Way, the Truth, and the Light. Your time of tribulation is upon you. Do you see the weather around you? Do you see the evil? The internet and television are the tools of satan. Your world accepts all this evil because it lives in it each day. Your world is full of materialism, not love. A child is no longer a gift from Me to fill your life with love and peace. Many now, see a beautiful little one as a burden that costs money and then, where is that new car, or house, or trip they want to go on. If it is not convenient, just abort it, for life does not matter. There is one word for abortion and that word is murder, plain and simple. Now is the time, My children, look deep within yourself, die to yourself, run to Confession and rid yourself of sin. Replace greed, jealousy, and envy with love and understanding. Do not judge anyone but yourself. Make yourself ready to meet your God, for I must reclaim My world. The ones who have passed laws, so sin is just fine, will see what they have done. Each one will see the evil they have committed against one another. I have given all My children free will. All know My Commandments. Do not justify your sins as truth. Trust Me and follow Me. The time has come for all sins to come out of the darkness, wash your souls clean with a confession from your hearts and all will be forgiven. Prepare, for your God is about to cleanse your world of its evil ways. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 27, 2019

My child, each day now, you witness distress and devastation. You see storms and floods and fires. Yet, why are so few asking for help from God, their Father? Why are so many not coming to Church or praying? I am a God of Love. I am trying so hard to show My children how precious life is and how fast it can change because of sin. Man must learn I am the Creator. I am your God and I can do anything. Pray now, My children, and repent for the time draws near. I will show My power. Prepare for the days of justice, for your sins are now greater in your world than ever before on earth. Man thinks he is God and has the right to do what he wants, no matter how evil. I am coming and all will know who is in charge. I am not a dead God. I am a God of power and I will show the world the truth. All will know My Divine Will and then they can either come to Me and do My Will or turn against Me and not have My gift of Eternal Life with Me. Seek Me. Repent now. This is the time of Tribulation I have warned you about. Come to Me, ask forgiveness, and let Me protect you from the evil around you. Trust in Me and know I am with you and I love you, for I am calling all My children back to Me. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

February 28, 2019

My child, I asked you what times in your life have you been the happiest and you told Me when your children and grandchildren and great grandchildren were in your arms and you could rock them gently and watch them fall asleep. You could sing to them a lullaby and hold them close and protect them and love them with all your heart, never wanting to let them go. And when you hold them close to your heart, your entire being is at peace. This is what I want to do; hold and protect and love My children, to turn them away from sin, and to bring each one in union with Me. I want all My children to have peace and know how much I love each one. I do not want My children to fear anything, not even death. Why would death frighten My children who are merely coming home to have eternity with Me? Do not worry, I have asked you all to live in My Presence. Do you see the changes when you know and believe I am with you? I want to hold you and protect you and guide you on the path that will bring you to eternal life with Me forever. If you could see what I have waiting for My children, if you could understand how much I love you and want you to be with Me at all times. Death, My children, is just a brief moment and in almost an instant you are with Me for Eternity. So, do not fear anything. For, as a mother holds her baby and rocks them and loves them and keeps them from harm, let Me hold you and give you My love and peace each day. For, I am your Creator, your God and Father, who loves you. I bless you in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages
