October 1, 2018

My dear one, today you were blessed with two holy Priest-Sons of Mine who came and did Confession. What a joy to see My children come to be forgiven for their sins. And Father(name withheld) and Father (name withheld) were able to give My children a Holy Mass and they were able to receive Me in My Holy Eucharist. My son and his wife (names withheld) are doing My Holy Will. I wanted My children to hear what I give to (name withheld) for it is confirmation to what I've been telling you. Little one, I am always with you and I understand your heart is broken over your daughter and that is why I gave (name withheld) words from your daughter who loves you so very much. My child, live each day in love and prayer, knowing your daughter will always intercede for her family. She will always be at your side. Today, you prayed with many of My children. It gave them such joy to hear what My Holy Spirit allowed you to hear and see for each one of them. This is a gift from Heaven and it helps My children when they receive confirmation of something that I know they need to become closer to their faith in Me and to realize how special each child is to Me. I love and bless you for all you do for others. You will see much more progress each and every day in preparing for the times to come. Trust in Me and I will send you all you need, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 2, 2018

My dear one, continue to pray for My Priest-Sons. Homosexual priests in My Church have hurt our Holy Church and I have so many holy Priests who have given Me their 'Yes' to know Me, Love Me and Serve Me and My children. They are the only ones on earth that can bring you My Holy Eucharist. My Priest-Sons will once again have all the respect they deserve and it is a shame that all have to face this instead of the ones that sin against My laws. But, each and every one will answer to their Almighty God and Father and I promise you all evil will be brought to light. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 3, 2018

My dear one, tell My children each and every day to ask St. Michael to defend you in battle because you are really living in the battle between good and evil. You all must trust only in Me, rely on Me and tell Me to take over. I want you to abandon yourself to Me. Pray to Me always with loving confidence. You could say many prayers but when you learn to completely give yourself to Me and tell Me to take over your life, you will have great peace and see many of the problems solved. Don't be afraid, just give yourself to Me and let Me take care of you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 4, 2018

My dear one, for many years now, you have always worn your Miraculous Medal and your St. Benedictine Cross with the exorcism medal and you are protected. Tell My children the times we are now living in, how very important it is to wear your holy medals for protection. The devil tries to trick you into sin. Be careful how the demons can lead you into sin. Satan wants you to have addictions that are hard to break. He leads you to do things and wants you to develop bad habits so you will continue to do so. You must pray and know I will help you. Focus your life around Me. Prayer will give you real peace; sin will only bring you away from Me. I want My children to realize this world is almost over. Your eternal life with Me is what matters. My Warning is coming soon and My children will all have a choice to be with Me or go on without Me and choose evil. Trust in My protection at all times and obey My Commandments and you will be with Me in Heaven forever. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 5, 2018

My child, I have blessed you with many gifts this week. You have had a beautiful Mass and now Father (name withheld) has come to do a special healing Mass for all My children I send tomorrow. Little one, soon it will be hard for My children to attend My Holy Church and receive a true Mass. Much evil is within My Church now. Many of My children will not even pay attention to the changes to come but My faithful ones will know when things are not right. You, My child, will know in your heart and My Holy Spirit will enlighten you. My true Priests will not be able to accept the new ways for they will know they are not My ways. Little one, when all of this comes, you will understand why I sent you a beautiful holy chapel. When My Priest-Sons have to go underground to do a true Mass, I will send you many Priests to do a true Mass so My children here will have My Holy Eucharist. When My false Priests do a Mass that is not done right, I will not come into the unconsecrated Host. My Miracle will not happen. I will not turn the host into My real Body and Blood and My children who really love My gift of Myself will know the difference. Ever since you were a small child, when you came to receive Me, you felt My Presence within you. You love when we become part of one another. You are blessed knowing this is real. When someone tries to take this away, you would do anything to stop this. For, to receive Me in My Holy Eucharist is part of your life. It is who you are and what you believe in and you could not even think of living without Me. I know this and as you look around, you see each and every thing has been sent by Me so you will always have a true and Holy Mass. I will be with you and all I send here, and your protection will come from My Holy Saints and all My Holy Angels I have surrounded you with. You are never to fear, only pray and love. Each child I send will love Me as you do and you will come through these times full of love and joy and you will enter into a New Heaven and Earth full of My love and peace forevermore, never to cry another tear or have sorrow again. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 13, 2018

My dear child, tell My children I am a loving Father and I long for My children to love Me for I love each one more than they can imagine. I want My children to come to Me and understand I am truly present in My Holy Eucharist. When you come to Holy Communion, you receive My Body and Blood. You receive the living Jesus. It is not a symbol. It is Me and I am living in you and I want My children to receive Me with reverence. My greatest gift to My children is My gift of Myself to them in My Holy Eucharist. I am glad you receive Me on the tongue. You realize you are receiving Me and I am sacred and you believe in Me present in My Holy Eucharist. My dear one, in your life, you have seen many changes in My Holy Church. You will know in your heart and soul when it is not right. The day will come when My good and holy Priests will have to leave and go underground to bring My true Holy Eucharist to My children who love Me. My holy Angels will lead them to My children who believe in Me and after this tribulation passes, you will see My Holy Church rise again in glory and My holy Priests will have the love and respect they deserve and satan and all evil will be crushed. Continue to pray and believe for I love you and bless you, for I am your God and Father, your Savior Jesus and I give you these words through My Holy Spirit.

October 14, 2018

My dear one, I have called you to leave your own will behind and follow Me. Little one, I have chosen you to be a fisher of souls. Why? Because you love others and see Me within each one. I have given you exceptional grace to help others. So many of My dear children suffer in body or soul. You are living in dangerous times now. I wish for all My children to offer their life to My Sacred Heart and to My Mother's Immaculate Heart, for I am coming soon as your Jesus of love and mercy and I will spread My light and love throughout the world. Live your faith, love Me and trust in Me. Continue to carry your cross and offer your sufferings up to Me. Remember, no matter how hard your suffering is, it is for only a short time. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 15, 2018

My dear ones, I only ask that you love Me. If you really love Me, you will be happy and receive My grace. The more you love Me, the happier you will be. When you love Me, your faith is passed on to others. When you love your Eucharistic Lord with reverence and believe in My Sacred Presence, you receive My tremendous love and grace. My heart is torn by My children and the way they refuse to know Me or love Me. Your world tells My children sin is no longer sin. Everyone has a right to believe in what they want to. Abortion is fine if you don't want the baby. It's not really a baby, just cells. Do you know how many of My dear children were killed by the ones who should have loved and protected them? Each one who committed this sin will meet the little one they killed and see what they have done, and, so will the ones that believe in this grave sin. So many of My children have lost respect for their

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

God and for one another. Marriage is a Sacrament, not a union to be broken when someone wants their own way. So many of My children today only want what makes them happy and are too lazy to work at anything and pass this on to their children. They want to give them all material things and forget to teach them about Me and My Commandments for them. They continue to work to buy more and going to church and praying is old-fashioned and only weak people pray and they question, "Is there really a God?" Did Christ die on a Cross and rise from the dead, really, or is that a fairy tale? Wake up World! For your Jesus is coming and after I talk to each one, it will be your last chance to come back to your God and Father and you will see your sins and know what sin is! I love each one so much and I warn you, this is your last chance, Divine Mercy. Pray it comes soon, for many of My dear ones are walking the path to destroy their souls. Wake up, before it is too late. I am calling all of God's children to come back to Him and do His Holy Will in their lives. Go to Confession. Be ready to meet your God. Pray and work on your souls, for I am your Jesus who died for you on My Holy Cross to save you. Wake Up! Time is short. I bless you in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 16, 2018 – Message from the Blessed Mother

My dear children, I am your Mother and I love and pray for each one. I know you and know what each one has to suffer. When My dear Son, Jesus, had to suffer, did I not suffer with Him? This, My children, was a great privilege and I knew it to be so. But, did I not tell St. Gabriel the Archangel when He told Me I would be the Mother of God, "Let it be done to Me according to Thy word?" And I received peace amidst My greatest sufferings and that is how I had Heaven on Earth, by doing the Will of God and we must know God knows all things and He is always with each one of you. Dear little ones, no matter what you are suffering through now remember, life is a very short time of trial. Ask for God's Will to be done in all things. Pray with one another and for one another. Desire all that God gives to you. Look upon His Crucifix and see how much He loves you and what He has done for you and look forward to the New Heaven and Earth He has waiting for each one. Offer all suffering up and live your life for God and look forward to Eternal Life with Him. Pray, My children, Pray. Time is very, very short. Be ready! I am your Mother, for God made Me the Mother to all His children. I come today to call you all to come back to your God and Father and turn your life over to His Holy and Divine Will for you. I wrap My mantel around you to protect you from evil. As a loving Mother, I ask you to pray and trust in My Son to come once again and this time as your Jesus of Love and Mercy to save you and bring you to a New Heaven and Earth. I am waiting to welcome each one and I bless each one in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 17, 2018

My dear ones, your country is so divided now, so many believe in the evil and are so corrupt. You will see many things happen soon. Many people will protest and you will see My children fighting one another in the streets. Your country was once a great land where all loved your country and believed it was one nation under God. You still have a nation where many still believe in One God and love and would protect your nation. You must pray your Holy Rosary that God your Father will send your Jesus with Divine Mercy soon to bring His children back to Him so America will be great again and all will be together and a nation under God once more. By your prayers, you will be the ones to help Mary crush satan's head and Her Immaculate Heart will triumph and you will have a New Heaven and Earth. Continue to pray, pray, pray as My Holy Mother has been asking you. I bless you in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 18, 2018

My little one, each and every day you and many of you pray with St. Benedict and wear his Cross. Do you realize that St. Benedict lived his life by Rule and he wants to guide all to live as he did? He wants you to pray to him so he can guide you daily. The first thing he lived by is to love your God with all your heart, soul, and strength and love one another as yourself and to desire eternal life with God, your Father, more than anything else; to obey God's Commandments, to think before you speak and learn to love prayer and make it your way of life. Do you know why you feel so safe when you wear your medal Cross of St. Benedict, because you are. Your medal has power over evil and storms and the devil.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

You must use your medal and call for the intercession of St Benedict. He will always come when one of My children call on him. He wants My children to let him help and protect them. For he knows what I have said is true; that eye has not seen nor ear has not heard what God has prepared for those who love Him. He knows now and wants all My children to receive this great gift. The times you are living through are very serious. St. Benedict wants to help My children come through these days without fear and to protect them from harm and evil. He is very protective over My children who are proud to wear his medal Cross and believe in their Holy Catholic faith as he did and to love God above all things. The times ahead are not easy, My child. Let My Holy Saints help you. Just call on them for they lived on earth just as you do now; all walked different paths and they continued on to become My Holy Saints. My children that live today are living in the last days and your paths are not easy and My Holy Saints want to help My children, in these times, to continue on, because they know the times will become even harder and you can all become Holy Saints by keeping your faith and continue on as they did. I love and bless you in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 19, 2018

My Dear One, many times My Blessed Mother has told Her children to amend their lives and only a few will listen. Many years ago, she said the cup was filling up; now it is flowing over. She told the children in Garabandal this was the last warning. Padre Pio saw the Miracle that will come to Garabandal before he died. My Warning is very soon now and only a small number of My children believe in all that is to come. My child, you are very blessed to be aware of all that is going to happen very soon. I do not want the Chastisement to come upon My children. But, your world now is so full of evil. Many of My Cardinals, Bishops, and Priests are not following My ways and are leading many souls the wrong way. My children and My Holy Church are believing in the lies of satan and My children do not have faith as before. I will come soon with Divine Mercy and I pray My children, this time, will listen and ask forgiveness with sincere hearts and I will pardon you and bring you back to God, your Father and your true Catholic faith. Tell My children to think about My Passion and they will know how much I love each one. Pray for all has begun. You can see all the signs I have been sending and you know there is not a lot of time left. Your world has turned against Me and evil has seeped into My Church. I must drop My hand on a sinful world. Because of your Father's great love for His children, He is giving all one more chance to come back to Him through Divine Mercy. This will be the last warning and justice must come. Continue to pray and trust. Tell My children to go to Confession now. All is about to become a reality. You will all see yourselves as God, your Father does. You are about to meet your God. Do not keep silent about this. Tell My children I am coming soon. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 20, 2018

My dear one, I want you to believe all evil will be removed from your earth. You will have a New Heaven and Earth. I am coming. I am so close and so few are prepared. Read My Scriptures and recognize the signs of the times you are living in. I know how much you miss your daughter but, My child, have joy and be happy. Walk with Me. Trust in Me, believe I am always with you guiding you through the times of great darkness. Know soon all will experience My great love for them and My children will see Me and know how much I love them. I will cleanse the world of all evil. The time of evil and darkness must come to an end. My New Earth will be full of love. My children will have peace and joy. Reject satan and sin and die to self. There is such little time left. I am calling each one to give up the world; do not become downhearted with what is happening in the world and My Holy Church. I am your God and Father. The world and My children are My creation. Satan wants to destroy you and the world in which you live and My Holy Catholic Church. I am coming to reclaim all that is Mine. Everything will be made new again. Love and faith and prayers are your weapons. Follow Me. All will see the love of their Father soon. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 21, 2018

My Dear One, I want all My children to realize how much I love them but I also want each one to know I am a God and Father of all but I will not accept sin within My Holy Church. My children, be aware of the times you live in and do not accept the lies of satan. Seek out My Holy Priests and go to Confession. Read Scripture and come to Me in Adoration. Give Me all your burdens. Receive Me in My Holy Eucharist. For I want to be part of your life and be with each one and be within you. You know the Faith; live the Truth. Your faith is a special gift from Me. My children will now see many changes coming into My Holy Church. Stay alert and pray that you will know the truth, because My children who love Me and love their faith, know the truth and carry it in their hearts. They will be the ones who will keep My Holy Church and My Ways and My Truth. Trust only in Me and read My Gospels. Walk with Me. Follow Me and I will bring you to My Kingdom and eternal life. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

October 22, 2018

My Dear One, it is time for My children to detach yourself from earthly things and seek spiritual things. Your world is going to fall apart before your eyes and you will also see your Holy Church split. This is why I want My children who still believe in Me and in My Commandments to come to Me in Adoration and spend quiet times with Me. I will speak to your hearts through My Holy Spirit and I am always here to help you and guide you. You all have sufferings in your earthly life but if you pick up your cross and follow Me, you will have eternal life with Me. I will send My good Angels to help and protect you in the times of the Antichrist. I will help you but you all must be aware of what is going on and think about how hard it will be once there is no electricity and you will not be able to go to the store to buy what you need. I will help you and multiply what you will need but you must prepare now and help yourself now to be ready and know that once all has begun it will be too late to acquire the things you want Me to multiply for you to come through this tribulation time on earth. Pray, for your time on earth is passing very fast. Take each day as a gift and use it to get to know Me, love Me, and serve Me, so we can have eternal life together forever, full of love, joy, and peace. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 23, 2018

My Little One, tonight, on the news you saw all My children that are leaving their homeland and walking towards the United States. Some of these children are in need of a safe place to go and some are being sent by evil men to bring down your country. Pray, My child, because you are seeing more and more of My children being homeless. Many do have to flee because their country is so evil and they have nothing to eat and nowhere to go. Some are trying to save their children from harm. You are seeing many in your own country becoming homeless because of fires, storms, floods; all of this is just the beginning of what is to come. Because of your "Yes" to Me, I have blessed you with a refuge. Everyone I send here will have a Cross on their foreheads. This will be needed to enter. Trust in My protection. You all must have complete faith and trust in Me. My faithful remnant will come through this time of the tribulation. After My Warning, help all My children I will send to you and I will help you. Pray, for all has started. Do not fear! Continue to listen to Me. I will guide you and tell you what to do. I am always with you and My Angels will protect your refuge from harm. Give praise and be thankful for all I have blessed you with. When My children are here together, I want you to have someone in prayer at all times and I want Adoration to be going on always. I will always make sure you have Me in My Holy Eucharist. Pray and prepare, My children, for time is short and all is now begun. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 24, 2018

My dear one, what a beautiful way to spend your birthday, gathered in prayer together with the ones I called into unity. I come today as the Child Jesus and I am honored as you pray to Me. I want each of you to pray to Me as a small and humble child and keep your child-like faith I blessed you with. As I showed you, St. Michael the Archangel is also with Me. He was sent by God your Father to be your protection in the times in which you are now living through. Pray each and every day your St. Michael prayer. You need protection from the evil one and he cannot stand St. Michael. I told you, for the days ahead of you, I send My Holy Angels and many Saints. Call on different ones by name and they will come and help you. I will always be with you as your Holy Mother and St. Joseph, also. All you have to do is believe as a child and pray and trust. For I am coming soon. Yes, I must drop My hand now, on a sinful world, but My children who love and believe in Me will receive My heavenly protection. All evil will be crushed and you will come into a New Heaven and Earth and have joy and peace. All evil will be gone forever and you will have eternal life with Me. I love and bless each one. Continue to pray and trust in Me, for I am your God and Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

October 25, 2018

My Dear One, I am calling all My children to come to Confession and I wish for all to be forgiving to anyone who has harmed you. After a good Confession from your heart and you are absolved from your sins, My children need to forgive themselves and believe I have forgiven them. Trust in Me so you can go ahead in your life to live on without committing the same sins over and over. Pray to free yourself and begin again. I love My children and want all to come to Me for eternal life. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 26, 2018

My Little One, each and every day I want for all My children to pray, "Jesus, Mary, I love you, save souls". This little prayer from your hearts can save so many. With this act of love for others, you will receive much grace. If My children would only take a little time to pray for all the ones that are passing from this life each day into eternal life, many more souls would be saved by this little prayer. You are saving so many and some day you will meet the ones you helped by your love and prayers. The prayer I gave to St. Gertrude, I told her, would release a thousand souls from Purgatory each time it is said. And it really isn't that long. I am asking for all My children who love Me to pray for others and, by doing so, you will be saving yourself and all your loved ones. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 27, 2018

My Dear One, I love all My children so much and yet so many are away from Me. Evil has entered the hearts and minds of so many and because they are so upset with their own life, they want to do harm to others. So many cause great suffering to others. If only all My children could feel love then they could be able to give love. Some of My children never were loved and never brought to any church to learn about Me, their God and Father. They do not understand how much I love them and how I gave My only Son, Jesus, to die on His Holy Cross for each one to be forgiven for their sins so they could repent from them and have eternal life with Me forever. But, little one, out of My great love for each one, I am sending My Son once more and this time as your Jesus of Love and Mercy. This time each and every one will see Me and know how very much they are loved and why I created them. My Mercy and love will flow upon each one and they will know God's goodness and each one will have free will to come to Me and be forgiven of all their sins or to reject Me. If they ask for My Mercy, I will be able to pour My Mercy upon them. Pray that soon, My children will all come and receive My compassion from My Heart and know true love and accept My love and mercy to save them from all evil. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 28, 2018

My Dear One, more evil today! (Shooting at the Synagogue) Why, when some of My children are praying, another full of hate and evil would walk into a synagogue and take away their lives and give hurt and sorrow to the ones that loved them? The ones that came home to Me saw Angels and their loved ones that were already home with Me. They saw a wonderful, beautiful place that they never could have imagined while on earth and they saw their Lord and God. They are in perfect peace but the ones left behind are suffering and cannot understand the evil they are living in. Pray, My child, for things will continue to happen until I come to put a stop to all evil. My New Heaven and Earth will have love, joy, and peace and it will come soon for all My children. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 29, 2018

My Dear One, so many of My children do not believe in the coming Chastisement but a great time of tribulation is coming—natural catastrophes, as well as, those created by evil men. A third world war threatens your world. Today, more than ever, I ask you to pray. I am protecting you under My mantle. Only with prayer and fasting, can you help stop war and natural disasters. Repent of all evil for it is time for purification of your souls. You must be strong and keep your faith. I want My children to pray and prepare and be ready for all that will be but most of all, I want My children not to fear but to trust in Jesus and know you will be guided and protected by holy Angels. You will know what to do and have peace. I love and bless you for I am your Mother.

Shrine of the Christ Child Messages

October 30, 2018

My Dear One, pray for My Holy Will to be done and for My children to believe once more in their holy faith. Going to Mass and coming to Church, just for a visit to talk with Me, was a very common practice when you were a child. Now, in these days, very, very few believe as they once did. Most have more important things on their minds on Sundays like shopping or sports. If My children would put God first and then family and realize each day is a gift and could be their last one. Are they ready to meet their God? Coming home to Me is a reality of life. I wish My children would start to worry more about their soul than their bank account. Each and every day, you have a chance to come closer to Me and obey My Commandments. And, each and every day, your life passes by. Take time to pray and visit Me so when I come, you are ready. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

October 31, 2018

Little One, so many of My children are so excited about Halloween, they love to dress up and go door to door for candy. How many of My children are excited about All Saints day? How many will not even come to Church? Do you realize, all My children could become Saints? I just wish My children would realize that life is a short period of time compared to eternal life with Me. My children need to pray and worry about their souls and get to know their God. I gave each one, each and every day to live. I gave them life and the world in which they live in. I want each one to have eternal life with Me, not just a few short years on earth. When I come once again as Jesus of Love and Mercy, I will be calling all back to God and each one will have one last chance to get to know Me, love Me, and serve Me, so they can be with Me in a New Heaven and Earth forever. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
