June 1, 2019

My child, tomorrow is Sunday. How many of My children will come to church? How many will come to receive My greatest gift I left to them at My Last Supper? I gave Myself to save all of God's children. When My children come to receive Me in My Holy Eucharist, it is I, your Jesus, the same gift I gave to My Apostles at My Last Supper, My Body and Blood. I come to be within you, to give you the strength and courage to live each day. My children are surrounded with darkness now. You have so many other things in your life that are more important to you than Me. You only think of power and wealth. You cannot put down your phones and computers. Your countries develop weapons that can kill millions of people. Your television is full of sin. Many of My children have been murdered by abortion and so many believe this is their right. Many live sinful lifestyles and believe it is alright. Homosexuality is a sin. My children were not born that way. I did not create this evil. It is not love. It is satan's way to destroy so many. Wake up. I am coming. I call each one to repent while there is still time. Come to the Sacraments and be forgiven. I want for you to come back to Me while there is still time. I shall reclaim My earth and My children with love and they shall live by My Commandments and love one another as I love them. My children will be set free and I will crush all evil. Sin will not exist. Sickness shall be washed away and death will be of the past. All loved ones will be reunited and together forever, for My children were not meant to live in evil. They are meant to be with Me. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 2, 2019

My little one, tell all My Remnant, I know the ones that follow Me. When My Hand falls upon a sinful world, only those who wake up at My Warning will be left, for I will give all a chance to return to Me. The ones who have prepared and live in My Presence now will help the ones who repent at My Warning. My Mother came to earth to warn all Her children to give up sin and believe in God, your Father, Her Son, Jesus, and all the Commandments and truths We have given you. Only Her Remnant would listen. In your world, sin is being accepted, even in My Holy Church. I will not accept sin and My justice will come. All will see how they offend their God. All will witness My Power. I must cleanse the world so My Remnant will live in peace and love. Can My children not see all the signs? There is great danger all around you. Fire, floods, earthquakes, storms, diseases, wars and rumors of wars, hate and destruction, and so much more. My Remnant does not need to fear. I will lead you through the Chastisement. Just pray and love one another as I love you. I am just and I want to give love and mercy to all who come to Me. But, I am coming to destroy all evil. Your days are numbered. Pray and follow Me now. I love and bless you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 3, 2019

My dear one, tell all My children, even though you are living in difficult times, you must stay cheerful and think positive. When you see and hear of all the bad and evil things that are happening around you, pray and think of all the wonderful times ahead of you. You believe in My Coming as your Jesus of Love and Mercy and the New Heaven and Earth I will bring My faithful ones to enter into. You all must have strength, courage, and fortitude and believe in My words that I will never leave you. You hear of war and of the Chastisement to come and the persecution of Christians. You are in a battle between good and evil. Your answer is to pray. Your weapon is your Holy Rosary and to love one another. To win this war, you must have charity and do deeds of mercy and be Me to others. Do not be afraid of the three days of darkness. Light your blessed candles and pray your Rosary for God's Mercy, for while My faithful ones are praying, I will be destroying all evil. Those who serve God have no reason to fear. Pray, trust, and believe. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My little one, tell each one to spend time with Me each day in prayer. This is a must. You need to make time to raise your mind to your God. Try and find a quiet place where you can communicate with Me and we can be together. Prayer will bring you peace. Ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten you and talk to Me. Even though I know what you are living through, I am ready to listen and help you. I want to share everything with you. I want you to get to know Me and develop total trust in Me. Come sit with Me. I find great happiness being with you. Since the beginning of time, I only desired one thing; to make Myself known and loved by you. I wait each day for you to come. I am really here in the Tabernacle waiting to love you. I know how busy each one is, but if you knew the blessing and graces I have waiting for you, you would not be too busy for Me. My children, time is short, the days are passing quickly, make your soul ready to welcome your Jesus. Share your life with Me and let Me lead you to Eternal Life. I will always treasure you and our time together. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 5, 2019

My dear, dear children, I come today as you are joined in prayer. I come with St. Joseph, St. Anne, and My dear Son, Jesus. I want to tell you of the joy you have all filled our hearts with. To be with My little children who love and worship My Son is so very special. You gather together to pray to My Son as the Child Jesus. Oh, what joy this gives us, for we were with our Jesus when He was a small child. You all love your children and grandchildren. Your hearts are full of joy when they return their love to you. You, also, remember the little things they do. What joy when they tell you how much they love you. So, you understand the joy it gives Me to hear your prayers of love and devotion to My Son, who lived and died for each one. St. Anne is Jesus's grandmother. Her love for Him is a gift all grandmothers should give to their grandchildren. Pray, for She will intercede for you and help you. My Dear St. Joseph was chosen by God, the Father, to be a good and loving father to Jesus. He taught Him to work with wood out of love, and had joy and pride, watching Him grow, just as all the good and devoted fathers do for their children. I am so happy for us to be able to share this prayer time with you, as you pray for My Son's Love and Mercy and meditate on His Passion. I hear you all pray your Holy Rosary that is My gift to each one, so you would understand the life of My Son while He was on earth. And, after you pray, you are all blessed to receive Him in Holy Communion. What a wonderful day, as you all are joined together in love to receive the Body and Blood of the One who died for each one of you to have Eternal Life. And now, My Son is re-marking each one of you with His Holy Cross upon your foreheads, for each one of you have been chosen by Him to form a unity to love Him and each other, to come through these times. He is coming to give you His Love and Mercy and bring you to Eternal Life. And, now He blesses you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 6, 2019

My child, it is time for all My Remnant to let prayer be life to you. Your prayers need to be sincere and from your heart. Every prayer is heard. I am with you always. Talk to Me, walk with Me. Love is your greatest gift to give to others. Your prayers can save souls. There are so many in the world in which you live that are unloved. Your prayers for them and kindness can change their life. My children are precious and each and every person on earth is in My heavenly plan. So many are starving, some from food and others, who no one loves or cares about, are starving from neglect. When I place someone in your life, take the time to know them. With your love and faith and prayers, you can change their life. You are all on a path to eternal life. Take the time to help others so they can walk with you. They can see your example and also come to Me. When you show others you really care about them, you are being Me to them. Even the ones you have never met before, when you just give someone a nod or a smile, the kindness will spread. When you put others before yourself, you are putting Me first in your life. By your example, you can help bring My children home to Me. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My child, you can see how fast the days are passing. A day turns into a week or a week into a month and before you realize it, another year is over. I want My children to be prepared. You must understand the times in which you live. You each were put on this earth at this time to serve Me and help Me. By your faith and love for others, your unity of My children grows. Do not be afraid of anything. Did I not assure you of My power? You are all learning now to live in My Presence. Come to Me often. Discuss everything with Me; every problem, every concern, every decision you make. I wait for My children every day to come to Me, to think of Me, and realize I am there for you. As soon as you do, I send you many graces and help you with everything you share with Me. Come to Me every day in prayer. I remain with you, for I am your God and Father, and I will not leave you. The times in which you live are not easy. Evil and darkness are everywhere, but I am with you and I want My faithful ones to remain calm and have peace. I realize you grow tired but I also know, by your faith and love, you are full of determination to continue on. You realize I am in control and I am coming to destroy all evil. I will bring My faithful ones to a New Heaven and Earth. I will give each and every child a chance to come home to Me. Heaven is real. There is no bitterness or pain or sorrow. While you are on earth, you can have a taste of Heaven. Your love and prayers bring you in close union with Me. I will place you in My Sacred Heart and you will be safe and loved. Prepare, My faithful ones, for I am coming. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 8, 2019

My dear one, as a small child, even I was entirely dependent on My Mother Mary. I want all of God's children to follow My example and submit yourselves to your Holy Mother Mary. She is the one chosen by God, your Father, to be My Mother. Place everything in Her hands and be dependent on Her to help you in everything in your daily life. She will help you pray. She is a loving Mother and will help you without a moment's hesitation. You will draw many blessings upon yourself. Renew your Consecration to Me through Her from time to time. Take Her hand, ask Her to mold you into Her child. She will fill you with grace. Do you realize God, your Father, has entrusted Her to the distribution of His graces to His children? By the Holy Spirit, I was conceived in Mother Mary's womb and She was filled with grace, and I am full of grace and truth. My Mother wishes to form each child and fill you with grace and bring you closer to Me, Her Son. Pray and ask Her to teach you humility and how to live in the Will of God and accept Divine Providence and fill you with the grace of God. Love My Mother, as I have loved Her. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 9, 2019

My dear little one, when I come as your Jesus of Love and Mercy, each and every child of God's will realize how much they are loved and cherished. Every person has the right to be unique, to be an individual with human dignity. Each one will understand they were created by God their Father and they were not meant to be unloved or unwanted. The cry of My children who were killed before coming into the world has been heard by their God. Life belongs to God and no one has the right to destroy it. So many of My children have been abused and unloved. My children will realize they do not have to search for Me, because I am in each one. They will know how much I continually love them, like the ocean waves, it never stops. All will be given a chance to come to Me and repent and be forgiven. All who come with love and a sincere heart will be made new. I paid the price on My Holy Cross for each one and I would do it all over again to bring one back to Me. Divine Mercy will be the last chance for some and a new beginning for others. Pray My Divine Mercy Chaplet each day. Pray and be ready for My Coming. There is great loneliness in your world and a terrible feeling of being unloved and having no one to turn to. When I come, all will know love and understand why God made them, and all will have Me to turn to. Pray and believe in My Coming. Faith and love go together. I love and bless you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 10, 2019

My little one, My children need to take each day as a special gift. Take the time to realize how special life is and enjoy the gift of all a day can bring for you. You must understand, without Me, there is no life. I am the one that gave each one life. Take time each day to love. I am love. Let Me enter your heart. Put your life in My hands. Find My love within you so you can give love to others. Love is not found in hate or gossip. It is not found in closing your heart to others. Love is found in giving of yourself to others. Your world is so busy and most have so much they want to do. They let the day go by and never take the time to realize how special the gift of another day is. Open your eyes, children. See the sun rise, see the beautiful sky, flowers and trees. I created so much beauty for My children to enjoy. Most of all, take time to show the people I have placed in your life, how much you care. Listen to them, pray with them, and be there for one another. I am the Father, you are My children. I want all to love one another. I have to drop My Hand on a world that loves sin. Killing must stop! I will give all mankind a warning. I will send My Holy Spirit to enlighten each one to their sins. I will show you the path you must follow to inherit the Kingdom of your God. For, if you follow the world and sin, your path will lead to hell. My Hand of Justice must fall. I must cleanse the world of all evil, so then, My children who follow Me shall have true peace and love. Evil and sin will be washed away forever. Trust in Me and remember, when you think of Me or talk to Me, you are in prayer. Prayer is communicating with your God. The more you pray, the more you will understand My Ways, the way of love. Make your life a prayer. Offer each day to Me, all your successes and failures. Your lives will be a sacrifice of love to Me. Live in My Presence. I love and bless each one, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My dear one, today is your daughter's fifty-second birthday. To you, she is still your little girl you want to love and protect. She is a good wife, mother, and grandmother, for she was raised in love and knows how to give love. I have blessed your life with so many to love. When I come, My children will know love beyond any you could know on earth. Nothing on earth prepares a person for the love that I will give to each one when they encounter their Jesus of Love and Mercy. My children will experience an enormous sense of peace, love, and joy. And, each one will be engulfed by a total feeling of love. You will be given clarity and understand and realize what a gift life is and how you were always surrounded by your God and Father, Jesus, and your Holy Mother and loving spiritual beings. You will see yourselves as I do and you will understand everything you have lived through, the good and the bad. You will see how you offended Me and how you have pleased Me and the choice will be made by each one. Pray and be ready for this extraordinary gift from Heaven. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 12, 2019

My Dear One, as each day goes by and more and more evil seems to be happening around you, just continue to say, "Jesus, I trust in You" and no matter what is transpiring, repeat, "Jesus, I trust in You" and really mean it. My Remnant must have total trust in Me in each and every situation. You must learn to rely on Me. Soon, all My children will experience My Warning. It will come out of My love for each one, but if you do not change, I will have to cleanse you from this earth along with evil. If you trust in Me and repent of all your sins, I shall guide you through this time and the ones who trust in Me and keep their faith alive until I come and continue to believe, those will be My Remnant. They will enter into My Promised Land of love, joy, and peace with Me forevermore. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 13, 2019

My Little One, today you went to visit some close friends whose brother is very close to death. They told you how, all day, he was calling out to his father and mother, his wife, and brothers and sisters, who already passed away years ago. You told them that was wonderful because you believe I let people see their loved ones when they are ready to come home to Me, so they won't be afraid. My child, you told them you really believe your loved ones that are with Me now, can be with their loved ones on earth every minute of every day and they cannot wait until you are all together again. My little one, soon, in My New Heaven and Earth, all My children will be together again. There will be no more separation. All My children will have peace. There will be no more evil. Sickness and death will be gone forever. My children all need to realize each day is a test. You are not living for your temporary life on earth. No, you are living for your Eternal life with Me. What is your life worth to you? Do you want a life without Me? I gave My life for each one of you, so your sins could be forgiven and you could have life forever. Do you realize the pain I went through on My Cross to save you and make you Mine? Obey My Commandments, for these are My laws I gave to you to live your life by. Your lives on this earth are just a passing trial. It is up to you where you wish to be for Eternity. By My death on My Cross for you, you can have Eternal Life. Remember, I love you. My only desire is for you to be with Me in My Father's Kingdom forever. I bless you, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 14, 2019

My child, today you were so happy, for your younger great grandchildren came to spend the day with you and also your grandchildren. You had so much fun playing with them. Their beautiful smiles and giggles, their beautiful eyes were full of love, and as you pushed them on the swings, they kept saying, "Higher". There was no fear because their little hearts know you love them and they trust you. My child, this is what I want My children to do; know without a doubt that I love them and to trust in Me. As you looked at your little ones today, you thought, where have all the years gone. These should be My children. How did time slip away so fast? Your life on earth is just a speck in time. Take each moment to love, for each child is such a blessing and they know the ones that love them. Do you see why My Justice must now come to your world? The blood of My innocent that have been massacred and your governments have made laws that it is fine to murder My unborn children and now, if a child is born and the mother does not want it, just make it comfortable and kill it. The ones who reject Me, I have warned them, and now I will chastise them. The chastisement is coming because of the acceptance of sin. Only I can give and take life and your world shall see My Power. Die to sin in your lives and prepare for all is about to begin. I shall look after those who follow Me, love Me, and trust Me, but now, My Hand must fall on a sinful world that goes against Me. Prepare, My faithful ones, and know I am with you! I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 15, 2019

My dear ones, love is your greatest weapon against evil. In My New Heaven and Earth, all My children will have each other and will be joined in one family. Prepare, for soon, there will be an outpouring of My Holy Spirit upon the earth. I will show all My children how their sins have offended Me. If My children come to Me with a true sorrow for their sins, they will be washed away forever. Each one will see their whole life replayed before them. You will be shown all the things you have done, good and bad. You will see the way you looked at the things you did, and then you will see how things you did offended others or helped others and then you will see how Jesus saw what you have done. Then, you will realize how much you are loved and why God, your Father, created you in the first place. Realize, My dear ones, the reason you are on earth is a test. Yes, there are trials and tribulations but also look back on your life and see all the blessings your Father has given you. Your faith is a gift and if you really believe in your God, you know you were created to live forever and your journey is the path you walk now. Everything on earth will end and all material things will be gone. Only God's children will have Eternal Life. Pray, trust, and believe, for I will destroy all evil and bring My children who love and obey Me to My Kingdom to come where My Will will be done. I love and bless you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 16, 2019

My little one, today you are praying for your dear friend, (name withheld), who came home to Me. And, yet you are so happy for her because you realize she is with Me. You see her joy in being so happy. You know Mother Mary and Jesus came and took her hand and she is with her sons and all her loved ones that came home before her. (Names withheld) have been in your unity prayer group for many years and they shared a beautiful love. They were a gift to all who they prayed with. (Name withheld) will pray for each one of you and (name withheld) will now be at peace because in his heart, he knows (name withheld) is with Me, for she had the gift of love and faith. His faith is true. He shows his faith in all he has done in his life. When I call him home, his joy will be complete, for both of them have the gift of Heaven and Eternal Life. (Name withheld) sends her love and each one means so very much to her. She will pray and watch over all of you. She has complete love and joy. Pray for her and be happy for her. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 18, 2019

My dear one, as you sit and look at the ocean, you see the power of God, your Father. Ever since I created it, the ocean has never stopped, the waves go on and on, just like the love I have for every child I created. My love will never stop. You feel the soft, gentle breeze against your face. It is My gift to My children. Where do you think the wind comes from? You see all the beauty that surrounds you and it is a wonder to you how your God created such a world for His children, but My daughter, no matter what you see or experience on earth, nothing can compare to what I have waiting for all My children who give up sin and repent. I shall cleanse the earth. My Spirit shall flow throughout the world. My children will be empowered by My Holy Spirit and many will be saved. All will know Me and My Creation will live in peace. Prepare now, My children, while there is still time. Do not let the sin in an evil world hold you back. Die to yourself. Give up sin so you will have Eternal Life with Me. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My little one, My Remnant can see and feel in their hearts that everything they have been preparing for has begun. The coming Chastisement will not be easy to live through but My faithful ones will have Me and each other to come through this time on earth. But, you all understand I must destroy the work of the devil. First, I will send My Warning and then My Miracle will take place in Garabandal at the pine trees where Our Holy Mother appeared. I brought you to Garabandal to see for yourself the very small and simple place I chose for My Miracle to happen. The years have passed and you are growing older but Conchita was told by Our Mother the date of the Miracle, but she can only tell My Priest-Son eight days before. You and Conchita are about the same age. On your first trip to Garabandal, she did tell you that you both would not be young anymore; that you would be older and grandparents but you would not be old enough or ill enough to be in a nursing home yet. As you can see, My child, the years have flown by and now you have many grandchildren and great grandchildren. Time is short, My child. Tell My children to come to Me now and realize I am coming. Give yourself to Me and give up sin. So few can see what is really happening in the world. So few care about the danger and evil that surrounds them. Wake up and see what is happening before it is too late. I gave My children a great gift by allowing your Holy Mother to appear on earth, warning Our children to come back to their God and Father, to give up sin and pray, pray, pray, as much as you can. She came to call the world to conversion but the world does not listen. Your world has fallen deeper and deeper into sin and have passed laws that sin, murder, and sinful lifestyles are fine. So now, I will show the world I created who is in charge. Pray, My faithful ones, and help the ones I send to you. Keep your faith and trust in Me. My faithful ones have nothing to fear. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 20, 2019

My Dear One, My faithful ones need to flee to My protection and have firm confidence that I have the power, wisdom, and goodness to help you in every situation. You must turn away from fear of the coming Chastisement and know I will be with you through it all. You all must find forgiveness no matter what anyone has done to you or your loved ones. Learn to be meek and humble. Do not speak ill of anyone. Act mercifully and pray for Mercy. To forgive is not always easy. Pray for the grace to be completely forgiving. You must forget yourself. Your love must be strong and selfless. Imagine, during the Chastisement, you will be so busy taking care of one another, there will be no room for bitterness or resentment. All petty disagreements will be forgotten, so why not pray for the grace to forgive now and free yourselves of hurt and pain. Always have total love and compassion for everyone as I have for you. I love and bless you, in the name of your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 21, 2019

My dear little one, today, I ask all of My Remnant to pray for peace. You do not realize how close you are to nuclear war. Our Holy Mother has been coming to earth at her apparitions to tell Her children to pray, pray, pray and warn you of what could come. She knows much death and destruction will come upon your world because of the sins of mankind. Yet, She has called all Her children to conversion, for She knows the love of God your Father watches over you and He will not desert you in this time of need. I am your Jesus and I am with you every second of every day. You who follow Me and trust in Me, after this great tribulation comes to an end, you shall experience love, and joy, and Paradise in a new Era of Peace. All evil, death, war, hate will be washed away, for I am coming to cleanse your world. I love and bless you, your Jesus of Love and Mercy.

June 22, 2019

My dear one, I appeared many years ago to St. Margaret Mary. I showed her My Heart and told her how much My Heart burns with love for all of God's children. Tell My dear faithful ones, someday soon, they will all see Me and know My Love and Mercy and a love they have never experienced before in their life. I hold all so close to My Sacred Heart but so many refuse Me. Then, I appeared to St. Sister Faustina and told her, Love and Mercy are so important to each one. So many today need My love and mercy. So many do not have respect for themselves. Each child will understand themselves. Each one must come to Me to realize each child is as important as anyone else that is a child of God's. My faithful ones, show love and mercy to all I send into your life. When you love someone and care for someone and try to understand others and take your time to show love and mercy, you are doing this for Me. Remember, I told you, "Blessed are those who show mercy, for they receive mercy themselves. Whatever you do for others, you do for Me". I am coming soon as Jesus of Love and Mercy. Are you ready? You will see yourself as I do. You will see all of the good deeds you have done and all you have failed to do. Take time now, examine yourself, go to Confession, and make yourself ready. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 24, 2019

My Little One, tell all My children to use their time in this life to prepare for the next, for that is when life truly begins. There is nothing in your world that will not decay and disappear. When you follow Me and My Commandments, you gather treasure in Heaven and it lives on for all Eternity. Trust in Me and believe, the more you pray and talk with Me, the more faith you will have and My Spirit will work through you and I will use you to help My children who are in need and you will see the power of God, your Father. Be patient and loving. My Remnant, pray for your brothers and sisters. Help them to be enlightened by your faith. I am coming to cleanse your world of all evil. We are in a battle between good and evil. Your world has been blinded by the lies of satan. Sin has been accepted as being just fine, as long as it makes you feel good. My laws still stand today! For, I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. Sin is sin. Trust in Me and allow Me to guide you through these times of great sin. Do not listen to those who tell you that you must change with the times. I will not change My Laws. I do not change. Follow Me, follow My Ways. Walk with Me and Eternal Life will be yours. I love you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

June 25, 2019

My dear one, so many of my children seem to be suffering from many different problems in their life. I wish they would come and pray and talk to Me. I will help each one carry their cross. Life, My child, has much joy, but also much sorrow. My young men who go off to war, if they come home, many have seen such hate and horror, they are never the same. Many of My children are homeless. Your own country is going through many trials, and then there seems to be more sickness and cancer. It seems there are more trials each and every day. So many are not loved and they do not know who their fathers are and some do not even know their own mothers, and how many are killed each day by abortion. This is why faith is so important. My children must believe I am coming. All evil, death, and problems will be washed away. All My children who come to Me will have an enormous sense of peace and joy. You will actually cross over to another dimension where all will be engulfed in a total feeling of love. You will understand everything and realize what a gift your life was and how it was a test to come to Eternal Life. Pray for all who are suffering and give love, My child. It is the answer. Help others and be Me to others. Forgiveness will set My children free, for when you forgive others for the way they hurt you, then I forgive you and you find real peace in your life. I love and bless each one and I am always with you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My Dear One, tell My faithful ones to pray for a generous spirit, for then you are always ready to forgive. Always trust in Me to give you grace that you need to rise above human emotion. Do not worry what others might think, worry about what your God and Father thinks. Satan does not want you to know that every Mass you attend, every Communion you receive, every Holy Hour you make, every Rosary you say and each and every prayer you recite, weakens him forever. The more you love Me and trust in Me, the more you help defeat evil. I will cleanse your world of all evil and My Holy Mother will crush Satan and Her faithful children are helping Her. Continue on the path you are walking, for it leads to Eternal Life forever with Me. I love and bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My dear one, all of Heaven is praying for your world because you are so close to war. My child, it is so hard to see a world so full of hate and evil. When all-out war comes this time, it will be nuclear and many will be killed and the fallout will kill many more. You saw on television the man I just called home, how he and many more have cancer from the '9/11' attack. They were brave men, trying to help others and they suffered greatly and this was all out of hate and greed from evil men trying to hurt and kill others. There is much evil being planted right now, so pray for the ones that will be affected by this evil once again. Tell all My children to be prepared to come to Holy Mass, receive Me in Communion, and go to Confession. Your souls are so important and pray, pray, pray. I love and bless you, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

My dear one, you just finished praying a beautiful Rosary with your daughter. You prayed for your grandson, for you both realize how much he is affected by the death of his two friends. I hear your prayers and soon, when I come with My love and mercy, all of this will be gone forever. I will make a New Heaven and Earth. All pain and sorrow, sickness, death, and evil will be washed away forever. You were shocked tonight when you were watching the late news and they were showing all of the gay parades going on in your country. You could not believe what you saw; so many standing up for a lifestyle that you know is a sin. They all were so proud. Even a politician who was running for President of your country had a vest on with all the gay pride colors. All these people were marching and saying how happy they are, proud of disobeying their God and Father and living in sin. This is why I am coming. Everyone will see how they offend Me and then each one will have a chance to repent and give up sin. You could not believe how many took part in this and how they are proud of this. Your world is full of sin and that is why I must drop My Hand on a sinful world. Only I can change the world that My faithful ones are living in. Evil is growing stronger and sin, to many, does not matter. My children have lost their conscience. Nothing bothers them, as long as, they want to do something or live the way they want to, it does not matter who they hurt or if they sin. Most will have a great awakening when they see how they offend Me. Be ready, for My children will repent if they want Eternal Life and obey My laws, for I am the Way, the Truth, and the Light. Follow Me and live forever. I love and bless you, your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
