July 15, 2018

My dear one, listen to these words you are about to write from My Holy Spirit. Soon now, very soon, I will come as your Jesus of Love and Mercy. Are you ready? Are My children who are in your prayer group ready? I am coming to cleanse souls. I have certain work destined for you, My child. The job I have for you, you have been doing most of your life. I will be sending you many of My dear children during the days ahead of you. I want you to listen to them, mother them, talk with them, and share your love and faith with them.

Since you were a small child, you have had a child-like trust in Me and My Blessed Mother for all of your life even through trials of health and the death of your beloved daughter. You know (name withheld) is with Me and with you. She loves you so much and you will be together soon.

I have given you great gifts of the new chapel and your beautiful Infant of Prague. I have been helping you prepare your holy refuge for many years. Your children and friends know they will be supported both physically and spiritually during hard times and during the coming tribulation. My holy angels are protecting this place and My Blessed Mother and I come today to comfort you in your loss of (name withheld). You will see My coming Era of Peace and My love poured out. Help prepare My faithful to be saints in Heaven. I love all of you for you continue to follow Me and trust in Me.

I am happy you will come together each week to pray and honor Me and pray to Me as your Christ Child. This is why I came to you as the Infant of Prague. During world wars, My children who prayed to Me as the Christ Child were protected and when they were in need, all was sent to them. Your world is about to go through a great tribulation and I came to be with you. I am present here in your beautiful Infant of Prague statue. Pray to Me and trust Me and I will help you. By My coming to you, your refuge is My Shrine of The Holy Infant. Your home has always been full of love and children whom you loved and formed into good children who knew how to love and nurture their children. Now I am here to help you love and help My children whom I will be sending you.

You are never alone, My child. My Holy Mother and I are by your side to help and love you so you can help and love others. I love and bless you. The times are here and now, My child. You must come daily and listen to My words to you to fulfill the plans I have for you, My child. The reason I called you for this mission is because you are a small and humble child and trust in Me with your child-like love and trust.

Amen, I bless you for I am your Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

My dear little one, why is everyone telling you this is what should be done? I tell you what is to be done and I am the only one for you to listen to. You have always done what I asked of you and I bless you for your, "Yes, Lord, I am here to do your Holy Will." Did you remember I told you I have surrounded you with My Holy Angels? Do you realize what they are able to do for you? Your Angel is your most faithful companion, always by your side to watch over you. My angels were sent out many, many times to help My people on earth. When I was going through My Agony in the Garden, an Angel came to give Me strength. My little one, when Peter was freed from prison, he was in chains with two soldiers (guarding him) and My Holy Angel walked him right out. You have the relic of St. Rose of Lima. She was privileged to see our Holy Mother and Me, many, many times her own guardian Angel. When she was very ill, she sent her Angel to fetch a remedy to restore her strength and her Angel brought her a cup of chocolate and she was healed. I want you to use her relic and pray to her. I want you to understand that when I told you I sent many Angels, this is real. Many of My Saints have seen their Angels. All I want for you is to please Me and do My Holy Will. Let My Angels and Saints help you for they are with you. Remember, when you call My Saints by name, they come to be with you and do not doubt the Angels can help you in every situation. Call on them. You will know they are there and will protect you during the hard times and do many things for you that you are unable to do for yourself. Yes, My child, I have given you a mission and all has begun but do not fear, for you are never alone for you have God, your Father, watching over you. You have your Jesus of Love and Mercy, My Holy Mother is by your side, and My Holy Angels and Holy Saints are ready. Just call on them. Pray with them and know all is real for they were sent to you by My Holy and Divine Will. Take more time to know each one and you will know when they are present with you. This is My gift and blessing because it is My Holy Will to help you. So, do not fear, My little one, all will be done and evil will be destroyed forever. Have faith and believe in My Holy words to you. Amen, I bless you for I am your God and Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

From the Blessed Mother: My dear, dear, children, I am so proud of My little children as you offer up your prayers. I am here with you. Each and every prayer is full of love and devotion for My Holy Son and I, your Holy Mother. Each one of you are helping each time you pray to crush evil. Satan knows how short his time is and he wants nothing more than to attack each one to bring you away from your faith. But, My dear ones, continue on. You have answered My call and all these years you have received crosses and trials, yet here you are gathered in prayer. My dear ones, your prayers are more precious than gold and each time you are surrounded by your Angels and Holy Saints. My Son and I come to be with you and you have formed a unity of strength and courage to go on and each prayer brings you closer to the New Heaven and Earth, I have told you about for many years. Continue on, My little ones, for this path leads to your days of complete joy and happiness forevermore. I am your Mother, given to you by My Holy Son. I called and each one answered that call and I am so proud of My dear little children.

I love and bless you, in the name of your Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen

July 24, 2018

My little one, the days are passing so quickly and each day I send another sign. Do My children not see the storms, flash floods, volcanoes and earthquakes? Do they understand the weather is always changing? Wake up, open your eyes, you are living what is written in your Bible. But, remember, you are not orphans nor are you forgotten. God, your Father, sacrificed His only begotten Son for your sakes. Just think how much He loves you. Each soul is unique and it carries with it the voice of God. Know God, your Father, the Son and Holy Spirit, and your Holy Mother are always with you. Sit in silence and feel Our presence. It is My Holy Will to help you. So, do not fear, little one, all will be done and evil will be destroyed forever. Have faith and believe in My Holy words to you. Amen. I bless you, for I am your God and Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

July 25, 2018

I came today to tell you how proud I am of each one of you. You are My devoted ones chosen to live in these days. I have come to many places many times to tell My children to pray, pray, pray. Your world is full of evil and as a good Mother who cares for Her children, I want to protect you. Prayer, my dear ones, is the answer. If you could see the days ahead of you, you would understand that the most important matter of all is your Holy Soul. The world you live in is passing. My children, God your Father created you for eternal life with Him forever. Let the world and all of its evil and materialism go. All that matters is your faith that you have been blessed with. I am no longer appearing on Earth but I am with you each and every day as is Jesus. We love you and you are never alone. Come to us. I am calling each child and I am always listening to your prayers. If you knew how precious each child is and how much God your Father loves and cherishes each one, you would cry tears of joy. You cannot imagine what your Father has waiting for each child that comes to Him out of love. My little ones, continue on in prayer and trust, no matter what happens around you. Remember, by the death of My Holy Son on His cross, all sins are forgiven when you come to confession and give Him your heart. The days are passing and soon you will see your Jesus of Love and Mercy. By your devotion and prayers, you will be ready. I am here to encourage you to make yourself ready by confession and Holy Mass. To receive My Son in the state of grace, you become part of Him and if you could understand how your soul is radiated with graces, you would be so happy. So, listen to your Mother, My children, I am here to call you once again for you are My dear, dear children and I bless each one, In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

(undated)

My dear ones, I am here with you as you pray. I know you and I know each and every thought, deed, and action. I know what you think before you do. Do you realize who you are? You are the ones who will uphold My Holy Church and its teachings, for you know them and believe in them and you live them. You were chosen for these times on earth before you were born. Yes, you are living in the days you are told about in your Bible. Look at the signs around you, they have all been foretold. My Earth shakes from Evil, the weather is telling you each day. Open your eyes. Evil is so widespread now. Most people don't see evil as evil anymore. All are suffering now in different ways. But do not fear, My dear ones, for these times must come. And, believe I am coming to My children and this time they will all know what evil is and they will all know what each one has done and why. But, they will also know how much they are loved and each one will be able to choose good or evil themselves and they will know who I am! And sin is still sin! And, when they come to me with open hearts, they will receive My Love and Mercy forevermore. Yes, you will experience this soon. So continue to believe in your holy faith and know I love you and I am coming and you shall never cry another tear or suffer another pain. You will be reunited with all your loved ones and your hearts will be full of love, joy and peace with Me forever. I love and bless each one for I am always with you. Amen, I bless each one with My Holy Cross upon you and I am your Jesus and would die on My cross for each one to have you as My own forever, for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

July 30, 2018

My little one, come sit with Me, be with Me, for I have so much to share with you. Allow My Glory to penetrate your entire being. Trust Me enough to let Me guide you through each day so you may accomplish My purpose for you. Let Me be the one to empower you to live in a supernatural way depending on Me. The times are here and now that I have been preparing you for and many circumstances may arise that you are unable to handle but you must trust in Me and refuse to worry for I am your strength and courage. Do not worry about tomorrow. Only live one day at a time. Open your eyes; I am nearer than you think. The more you are aware of My presence, the safer you will feel and then you will be able to help My children. I want you to live in the present moment with Me. Do not worry about what the future may bring. Just concentrate on trusting Me and remember I go with you each day and I can bring you through every situation you may encounter. I am in charge of your life and no matter what may happen, focus on My presence with you and give everything to Me and talk to Me about everything and this is how I will work through you.

Satan's favorite weapon is fear, little one. But when you live in My presence and trust in Me, you will not fear and be able to do everything with Me. For I am always with you and will not leave you. Only you can leave Me and our companionship together. The reality of My presence with you will make you stronger and My presence enables you to face each day with confidence. Remember, My child, I live in you. Rejoice in Me, your Savior, no matter what trials and tribulations you may face, for I am your refuge and your strength to come through each day. I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

July 31, 2018

My dear little one, watch and be ready. Continue to go to confession and receive My Holy Eucharist. Let your whole life be a life of prayer. Allow Me to be a part of all your activities. You have been blessed and given graces to endure the trials that have come to you. I am always with you. I have told you to let go of your attachment of worldly goods. My faithful will receive all their needs from Almighty God, their Father. Every child will experience My Warning. Never before in history have such graces been given. Each one will be given an opportunity to repent and each one will know I am God and I truly exist; Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Many natural disasters have and will continue. I know it is hard to see all that is going on in the world and also in My Holy Church that you love so much. You see the signs of your times and you prepare by following Me and letting the world go. Are My children blind? Can they not read Scripture and understand what they are living through? The chastisement must come because of the acceptance of sin. I have given My children free will and they have disobeyed My laws. My beautiful unborn babies have been massacred and this is now legal and accepted. Same-sex marriage is legal so the sin of homosexuality is no longer sin? So many of My children are not loved or taught about God, their Father. They do not know what sin is. They grow up doing anything they want to do as long as it makes them happy. My child, I blessed you when you were small to go to Catholic school and My Holy Church where you were taught the Truth. I remember your First Communion day and how happy and excited you were to receive Me. You have always loved My Holy Eucharist and believed in My True Presence. You love Me as your Father. You love Me as your Savior who died on His Holy Cross to save you, and you love My Holy Spirit to be within you. You were given these gifts so you could love Me, know Me, and serve Me, and so you could pick up your own cross and live through these days on earth where so much evil exists.

My daughter, open your eyes and see all I have blessed you with. You must see how little time you have left. Listen to the urgency in My words, receive My Sacraments. Pray, spend your time with Me. I am helping you and preparing you. Trust in Me and do not fear. Know I am guiding you away from the world, for it is time now. You must prepare yourself with communicating with your God and dying to self. Prepare and tell My children to prepare, abandon the ways of the world and follow Me. Trust in Me and pray, pray, pray. We will continue on tomorrow. You must rest now. Know I am always with you and I love and bless you for I am your Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
