

Shrine of the Christ Child Message

Wednesday, 4/8/15, 3:00 am

My dear little one, I am very proud of you. You have tried very hard to love instead of letting your hurt take you over and not caring. I know you and your heart was broken but it is still full of love for others. Today as you held your new little grandson you were full of love and joy and so happy for his mom and dad. Your son is a very good man now and will serve Me well in the days to come.

My child make yourself ready to receive and help many of My children for devastating days are upon your country now. You will be able to overcome all fear and be blessed with My peace to help others. I woke you tonight to help you be ready for time now is running out. You will wake one day just as you did on September 11th and saw the towers of New York City fall, you will wake to disaster as never before seen. Please My dear one stay calm and call on Me. My angels stand on guard to help you. Make ready now for all has begun. Call on others to help you. I will care for all your loved ones and bring them together. My illuminated cross above your place will bring the children I wish to be with you. Do not fear, all who come will have the mark of My Son's holy cross on their forehead and be part of My remnant.

After Divine Mercy many of My children will come back to Me and you will help them understand what happened because I will enlighten you to understand everything as it unfolds. I will give you the grace, and strength, and courage to overcome all things and rise above all that is taking place. You will be full of My peace and love and be able to give it to others. You have said to My Holy Mother you will do all that is asked of you. Through Her and with Her you will be able to mother My children who come full of fear. Many of them will have lost everything, even their loved ones. You will hold them, love them, and comfort them. You will see My many miracles and witness many healings. You will be completely renewed to do My holy will for you. My children will feel My presence and know I am with them. You will live together, work together, and pray together. You will be so busy the days will pass very quickly. The cross will light your way at night and before you know it you will all enter into My new Heaven and earth. You will be saved from your enemies as it is written in Scripture and it is also written on the top of this page it is My confirmation for you (the bible verse at the top of the page in this messenger's journal is: I will call upon the Lord who is worthy to be praised, so shall I be saved from my enemies", Psalms 18:3).

My words to you now are to be listened to for they are very important. Before they were to prepare you, now they are to be lived. I bless you My little one and give you My power to overcome all fear. Trust Me in all things, rely on Me for everything and it will be done according to My holy will for you. I have made you strong and I know your future and what will happen and when you give everything to Me and trust Me, you will not worry or feel anxious about anything and will depend on Me for everything. I will strengthen you through My Holy Spirit and dwell within you. Now rest My child, I bless you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen, Amen. My power is all you need to rely on and because of your unending love for Me and others you will be blessed to receive it.
